

Greet Hermans is full professor at KU Leuven and head of clinic in the medical ICU in University Hospitals Leuven. She is a senior clinical investigator supported by the Flanders Research Foundation (FWO). Her research focusses on ICU acquired weakness, weaning from mechanical ventilation, ECMO and long-term outcomes of ICU stay. Her clinical expertise includes challenging ventilation problems, respiratory ECMO, weaning from mechanical ventilation and in-ICU rehabilitation strategies.