

Trinity Prayer-Walking

Why?

- Prayer-Walking changes neighborhoods into parishes, believers into missionaries, homes into ministry centers, churches into the crossroads of kingdom renewal.
- Prayer-Walking roots Christians into a community and gives calling and a sense of place.
- Mission and spiritual warfare become immediate. You see the mission field head-on.
- Prayer-Walking is a means to transform ourselves. It opens our hearts and eyes to our community and city, its beauty and its need. It gives you 'harvest eyes' rather than 'cloistered fear'.
- Prayer-Walking connects our plans and purpose to the plan and purpose of God.

How?

Specifics:

- Go in smaller groups, in pairs, or by yourself.
- Keep your eyes open and pray as you walk.
- If you're prayer-walking with someone, try praying short prayers, passing the praying back and forth.
- At some point in your walk include short prayers of praise and adoration. Remind yourself that Christ is present and is the Lord of this community and city. He is the reigning and coming King!
- Pray for God to give you harvest eyes and a spirit of grace and supplication. Ask for boldness and open doors to this city, community, and/or neighborhood. Confess fears, weaknesses, and lack of concern for those 'outside.'
- Pray for God to give insight into his kingdom plans for this community. Ask to fit into his plan. Rejoice in the opportunity!

Pray for:

- Critical needs (social, political, economic, spiritual)
- Churches and Christians (fruitfulness & effectiveness)
- Different people in different situations (poor, homeless, elderly, families, kids, marriages, those who are lonely, friendless, etc.)
