2025 – THE WHITE KING IS COMING
(Edited by Vincent Gillespie. 10/1/2025.)

Introductory comments

This video (titled: 2025 – The White King is Coming) is mostly narrated by one Ivan Krajciric. A notice appearing on the screen at time stamp 0:20 indicates that he holds several important titles, including: Chairman of the Board of Sovereign Media Platform RA Video; Founder of the Zlata Era Youtube Channel; Knight of the Sovereign Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, Rhodes and Malta; and Supreme Sovereign of the Order of Hospitallers.

Although the quality of the English narration of this video seems relatively good compared to that of other videos on the Zlata Era Youtube Channel, I (Vincent Gillespie) found some errors and unclear areas in the original transcript of the English narration (which was evidently created by software). Therefore, I made some changes and so there are some discrepancies between this transcript and the literal text of the English narration of this video. The more significant discrepancies are presented here in underlined and italicized font (like this).

The transcript

(0:15) We hear from all sides what revolutionary times we live in and what great changes await us. Everyone feels that something is in the air and senses that we are standing on the threshold of something that will definitively change our world, our future, our present, and even our past. (0:37) Many prophecies say that it is precisely in this time, in the year 2025, that a new Messiah will appear.

(0:46) Christians are waiting for the second coming of Christ, Muslims are waiting for Mahdi, and clairvoyants speak of the White Tsar who will come from Russia. After every prophecy about the Messiah, only one question comes to my mind. What is the truth? Is there already a person among us who has such great abilities to transform this world and help humanity walk the path of rebirth and influence the course of history? (1:14) Is there, among us, in our understanding, a God who can lead humanity into the new world that everyone is talking about? In this film, you will also get answers to these questions.

(1:27) Yes, I will reveal the name of the person the whole world is waiting for, who is recognized by all high-ranking people on earth. That is why it is important to watch this film until the end. I have divided this film into three parts.

(1:43) The first part is about the prophecies of clairvoyants [prophets], which agree that the White Tsar will come, who will be from Russia and will change the entire world. (1:54) In the second part, we will discuss the events happening on earth and how they relate to the arrival of a person with such great abilities. (2:03) In the third part, I will reveal the name of the White Tsar.

(2:07) I will show you an important document, the deeds of the White Tsar, and we will compare reality with the prophecies. From what I have just said, it is clear that this film is very important for every single person on earth. (2:23) Therefore, I think you will send this information to absolutely everyone you know. It doesn't matter what they think about it. What matters is that everyone knows about it.

(2:35) Considering also the events that are about to happen in the near future, it doesn't matter what nationality, skin color or religion you are. The changes that are coming will affect everyone, whether they want it or not. (2:50) And therefore, everyone has the right to know that the One whom all prophets and clairvoyants speak of, whom all the holy books mention, is here on earth and is already acting openly for the benefit of humanity.

(3:04) So let us not waste time and first listen to the prophecies that are particularly relevant at this time:

(3:11) In the silence of Mount Athos, between the ancient monastery walls, the old prophecies foretold centuries ago were heard once again. The elders claim that a boy with royal blood has already been born, whose birth is meant to signify an era of great changes. (3:34) This mysterious child, according to the monks, is destined to revive what many believe to be long lost. (3:41) The elders also remind us of a prophecy that says that the White Tsar, a mysterious ruler from Russia, will one day come and lead humanity into a new and better world. These prophecies do not seem to be coincidental.

(3:56) It appears that the figure of the royal child and the ancient visions of a ruler bringing light are converging into one incredible prophecy. All the prophet's eyes are turned to Russia, from where the birth of not just any new leader is expected, but one who will be able to influence the entire course of history. What secrets do the ancient mysteries of Mount Athos hold? (4:23) Who is this mysterious boy? And is his destiny truly tied to the mission of the White Tsar, who is to create a new golden era?

[A different narrator quotes from a prophecy of Stefan Karulsky while a picture of that prophet appears on the screen:]

“(4:37) The boy with royal blood has already been born. I see that in 2025 he will ascend the throne. He will become the light in the darkness.”

(4:48) Thus reads the prophecy of Elder Stefan, the famous spiritual clairvoyant, which he recorded in the 90s of the last century. Although the Athonite Elder Stefan Karulsky, who lived in the 20th century [...], never visited Russia, prophecies about the fate of this country were revealed to him from above, which he carefully documented. (5:14) His close friend claimed that the Elder could not afford not to record these visions, otherwise he would not forgive himself in the afterlife. (5:24) Every time Stefan had visions, he understood that these messages had to be passed on to people so they would know what awaits them and be prepared to face what is to come.

(5:36) One of the most astonishing predictions of Elder Stefan for the Russian people concerns the appearance of the White Tsar, which is supposed to happen in 2025, exactly 100 years after his vision. This prophecy, along with other predictions about Russia, was published in Russian media on the centenary of his birth.

(5:58) It is remarkable that other prophets have also confirmed the significance of the year 2025 for Russia. Both in the Bible and in the prophecies of other elders, and even in the predictions (6:11) of the last Russian Tsar, there is a hint that this particular year will bring joy and liberation to the people, and transform Russia into the true Holy Rus', under whose protection all the nations of the Earth will be.

(6:27) Serafim of Sarov predicted that Russia would be reborn when it is led by a Tsar who will support his people with all his heart. This prophecy gives us hope that a new era of peace and prosperity awaits us.

(6:44) Elder Stefan was a very unconventional monk. Despite the formal appeal of the Russian Orthodox Church abroad, he accepted all people seeking God, regardless of their religion. (6:54) For him, it was important to help a person find their way to God, whether it was in an Orthodox Church, a Catholic Church, or just a quiet place in nature, where one could be alone with themselves and the Creator. For the elder, religious formalities were completely irrelevant, which aroused suspicion among the church authorities. (7:18) Ordinary people, however, trusted him and came to him for advice and healing. His words brought healing not only to the body, but also to the soul. And it was precisely this ability that made him beloved among the people. (7:34) For the elder, the main thing was not the observance of rituals, but the sincere faith of a person in God and devotion to the Holy Scriptures. He believed that external ceremonies and rituals did not matter, if a person's heart was close to faith and love.

(7:51) Therefore, when he spoke of the coming White Tsar, people listened to him with bated breath and believed that this ruler would indeed come to revive Russia and lead it to prosperity.

(8:04) Stefan's path to monasticism was not an easy one. He graduated from an agricultural technical school and worked for some time as an agronomist, until he realized that his true calling was not cultivating plants, but nurturing human souls. Driven by this realization, he became a novice at the Balkan Tuman Monastery. (8:31) There, amidst the peace and silence of the monastery walls, he began to understand the mysteries of spiritual life, learning to listen to God's voice and comprehend His will.

(8:43) In the early 1950s, Stefan set out on foot to Mount Athos and became part of the Brotherhood of the Serbian Hilandar Monastery. In search of solitude, he settled as a watchman in a cave hermitage with harsh living conditions. There, the monk spent nearly 40 years receiving countless pilgrims who came to him for wisdom and spiritual guidance. (9:09) It was on Mount Athos that Stefan found his true calling to be a guide between the world of humans and the world of spirits, helping people find answers to their questions and leading them on the path of faith. (9:26) It was in this cave that elder Stefan devoted himself to tireless prayers and the study of the Holy Scriptures.

(9:34) And it was here that he received divine revelations in the form of visions. One of these visions warned that at the beginning of the 21st century, the earth would be struck by a water disaster. (9:50) Stefan predicted that America would completely collapse at that time. Americans would flee to save their lives, struggling to survive, so it will happen. He advised the people of Russia to protect their homes because millions of refugees would flow there, filling every available corner. Among the many prophecies of the elder, his predictions about the future of Russia and the entire world stand out. (10:18) He repeatedly emphasized that America's attempts to surpass Russia are doomed to fail and that the envy and ambitions of Western politicians would only lead them into a dead end. According to him, Russia will prevail and it will be the place where the great renewal of the world will begin.

(10:38) This is his most significant prophecy. The goal will be to eradicate evil, if not forever, then for many years. The Tsar will bring us centuries of peace and prosperity, but before that, the Russian people will have to endure great trials. (10:57) These trials will test their strength, loyalty, ideals of faith and justice. The elder often said that it is through suffering that people will come to a true understanding of their purpose and find the strength for spiritual rebirth.

(11:13) Stefan claimed that the boy of royal blood, destined to lead people to the light, had already been born. This year [2025] he will ascend the throne and become the light in dark times. (11:27) His decisions on the international stage will cause amazement and delight, and his descendants will follow his commandments and bring peace and prosperity. This ruler will become a symbol of spiritual rebirth.

(11:44) He will lead the people not only with the power of authority, but also with the power of spirit, serving as an example of personal nobility and justice. Stefan urged the protection of Russian land and was unafraid of the coming trials. He said that Russia is the ark of salvation for all humanity.

(12:04) According to the elder, everything is being done for our good, so that people may come to repentance and realize three main needs: faith, the Tsar and the homeland. The era of the White Tsar's arrival and hope for the future will start this year, which will be a key moment for the country. (12:24) This year will be the time when people regain faith in justice and the strength of their country, when they feel that they are not alone, that they have a leader ready to lead them into a bright future.

(12:37) And here is another very famous prophecy about the Tsar. Ancient prophecies and predictions mention the arrival of a mysterious figure known as the White Tsar. This ruler, according to many sources, is expected to come from Russia and radically change the fate of humanity. (12:58) The famous clairvoyant Michael Nostradamus, in his cryptic quatrains, hinted that the White Tsar would be born in the land of Tartary, [...] which today corresponds to the territory of modern Russia. It is remarkable that, according to Nostradamus, this person will practice an ancient faith.

(13:22) Who is this mysterious White Tsar? When exactly will he reveal himself to the world? Why do so many fear Russia and consider it the source of future changes? If we are to believe the prophecy, the White Tsar is destined to unite all Slavic nations, and this will happen no later than the year 2030. (13:46) Saint Sergius of Radonezh once had a vision in which the Blessed Virgin Mary said: "The three roots, separated by a curse, will be united by love." It is this love that will become the foundation of the union.

(14:00) The global events of recent years, pandemic crises, and growing tensions in international relations are all like links in a chain leading to the fulfillment of ancient prophecies. Astrologers and researchers of ancient texts are convinced that these events are not random. (14:20) They are part of a grand plan preparing the world for the arrival of the White Tsar. Many signs, such as rare astrological phenomena and natural anomalies, indicate that the time for global changes has come.

(14:36) People are searching for a leader who can restore order and bring the light of hope into the chaos. In this context, the prophecy of the White Tsar becomes especially relevant. Reuniting the Slavic nations, the White Tsar, according to predictions, will begin a large-scale transformation of the East.

(14:57) He will carry out global reforms and create a powerful union of Asian and African countries.

(15:05) Europe, however, will apparently not attract his interest. On the contrary, it will repel him with its hatred, aggression, and unnatural morals. Europeans, according to clairvoyance, have already violated all conceivable laws of world order and are not worth saving. (15:24) However, those who realize the destructiveness of their situation and decide to leave their countries may have a chance for salvation.

(15:36) Followers of Hinduism call the future ruler Kalki Avatar, a person destined to lead humanity out of a dying civilization into a new perfect world called the era of justice, Satya Yuga.

(15:53) Many prophecies about the White Tsar are also connected with the Vatican. The Fatima prophecies of the Mother of God are well known, and they were so shocking that part of them is still hidden by the Vatican. (16:08) According to these prophecies, the White Tsar will come from Russia, and many rulers will bow their heads before him, but the Pope will refuse, for which he will be overthrown. (16:20) According to legend, the White Tsar will not appear suddenly. For many years, he has been secretly gaining knowledge and studying the world to understand its weaknesses and strengths. He may already be communicating with influential individuals and secretly forming a circle of like-minded people.

(16:40) Some sources claim that the White Tsar began his preparation by visiting the most secret places on Earth, including ancient monasteries in Tibet, the mystical Shambhala, and other centers of spiritual knowledge. He may already hold a high position and remain in the shadows so that he can reveal himself to the world at the right moment.

(17:03) The great Nostradamus, in his mysterious quatrains, referred to the White Tsar as his angel Angamoa, emphasizing his gentleness and angelic nature. The French clairvoyant, who usually avoided specific dates, made an exception and indicated the period of Angamoa's appearance as the first half of the 21st century. (17:29) The summer of 1999, marked by a solar eclipse, became the time when Angamoa had to visit the head of an ancient hermetic lodge and receive initiation into secret knowledge. (17:43) This knowledge will make the White Tsar invulnerable and omnipotent, and this year [2025] will become the starting point of his rise. Nostradamus claimed that the White Tsar should take the reins of power no later than 2030, as he is now in his prime years.

(18:02) Sacred texts of various religions also contain hints of the White Tsar's arrival. Jesus Christ spoke of the appearance of the Comforter, who will bring solace to all who suffer.

(18:19) The Prophet Muhammad mentions the Mahdi, a messenger who will unite the faithful Muslims. It is remarkable that the Prophet emphasized that the Mahdi will follow a different faith and will come from a foreign tribe.

(18:36) Followers of Buddhism await the arrival of Maitreya Buddha, who will appear in the world with his army and unite humanity under the laws of supreme wisdom.

(18:49) Elena Rorik, an outstanding philosopher and writer, wrote about the White Tsar in the late 1930s and mentioned him as a bearer of wisdom and a savior of humanity. Her words about the time of this figure's arrival were vague. "When your little daughter grows old, perhaps the time has come."

For what purpose will the White Tsar appear? (19:16) Clairvoyants from different eras agree that this ruler will lay the foundation of a new world based on justice, love and mutual respect among nations. In this emerging society, there will be no place for wars and conflicts, borders will disappear, and people will live as one family on our beautiful planet. (19:39) According to prophecies, the White Tsar will receive immortality from higher powers, which he will also grant to his companions and he will rule for at least 300 years. According to prophecies, the White Tsar will begin building the world's capital in Altai. (19:58) Some predictions claim that he will not start his work in the East, but in Africa, uniting African states and then consolidating Asia and Eastern Europe. This entire process will unfold before our eyes.

(20:13) The concept of the White Tsar is not unique to Russia. In many cultures, myths and legends exist about a coming savior. For example, Celtic mythology speaks of the return of King Arthur, who is to awaken in difficult times and once again become the protector of the people. (20:36) In Japanese culture, there is a legend about the return of an emperor who will lead Japan to prosperity. In the legends of the Native Americans of Central America, Quetzalcoatl, the Great Teacher, is mentioned as someone who will one day return to save his people. (20:56) These legends, like the prophecy of the White Tsar, share the same idea. In critical moments of history, a powerful figure will emerge to change the fate of humanity.

(21:07) In this way, many nations of the world await their savior, who will come in a time of need and bring order to chaos. The White Tsar will become the long-awaited messiah, the savior of humanity, (21:20) who will eliminate natural disasters and conflicts in civilization, lay the foundations of a new world order and preserve the invaluable treasures of the human spirit and mind.

(21:32) All predictions and prophecies agree on one thing. In the near future, an extraordinary personality will appear on the world stage, destined to change civilization. This man, known as the White Tsar, will unite nations, stop wars, establish a just world order and lead humanity to new achievements. (21:54) The White Tsar will not only be a ruler, but also a spiritual mentor, a bearer of sacred knowledge. His wisdom and strength will enable him to overcome all obstacles and fulfill his mission.

(22:08) Prophecies from various religions emphasize the cosmic nature of his role. He will break down barriers, reconcile warring sides and show the way to unity and prosperity. On this path, the White Tsar will face many trials. Not everyone is ready to accept the coming changes and give up power and privileges. (22:34) Particularly strong resistance is expected from the ruling circles of Europe and the Vatican. According to prophecies, however, this confrontation will end with the complete collapse of the old order and the triumph of new principles.

(22:51) One more question remains. Is he here yet? But let's answer honestly. If a man appeared before you claiming to be the White Tsar, do you think you would recognize him? Are you capable of standing on the right side in this chaos of information caused by parasites at the end of times? (23:06) Can you discern who serves darkness and who serves light? Even though the Book of Books, the Bible, tells you that false prophets will come and church leaders have painted a precise picture of what your savior should look like? Can you recognize the White Tsar even when influenced by the opinions of people (23:26) who think something only based on what they have read in history books, which, however, have all been rewritten? Are you capable of recognizing actions that lead to our salvation? The predictions are clear and agree on many points, but which ones are true? (23:43) Is Stefan Karulsky correct in predicting that this year will be a turning point? Or is Nostradamus right? Where do the prophecies align with reality?

(23:52) It seems that the most important events are yet to come. This is a change of epochs, unique and occurring for the first time in human history.

(24:02) Therefore, in the second part of the film, we will discuss basic information about our Earth. We will talk about the game being played by the forces of light and darkness, and how it relates to the White Tsar, who is already among us. Earth is a significant place (24:20) where all the forces of this universe operate. That's why it's called Midgard. Here, the interests of the forces of light and darkness intersect. The dark forces, without conscience, carefully hide the truth about their presence. They also call themselves aliens, even though only local beings can exist in this world. That's why we call them demons.

(24:45) On one side are the forces of light, with ancient knowledge and sources of power, who have the right to manifest virtues and create conditions for accumulated good and light to be revealed in the souls of people. On the other side are the forces of darkness, (25:03) which exploit human vices and all opportunities, so that people behave like inhumans. This is called the game of the gods, which the gods devised for development, thus granting people the freedom to choose (25:17) who they want to become, darkness or light. With the arrival of the forces of light and the White Tsar on Earth, the game of the gods, in terms of worldview, is complete, and we are now in the time of reckoning.

(25:33) Both sides will reveal their identities, and the curtain will rise. An open confrontation has begun, which is described in prophecies in the Bible as the end of times. (25:45) Everywhere we see these dark forces unfolding, which want to be at the head of our human salvation. They are well aware that the old world is dying, and their goal is the so-called Black Harvest.¹

(25:58) The evaluation of this game has strict rules. The more a person develops spiritually and understands this game, the more they become involved in events and gain permission for conscious actions. Even you, watching this film, are being tested. So are the highest representatives of all nations, (26:20) who in recent times have served the dark forces. Presidents, kings, financiers, the Black nobility are revealing their true qualities, which they have accumulated over many lifetimes.

(26:34) We now see with our own eyes who is who. Our world is the world of RA, the world of vibrations. RA means light. For our ancestors, RA represented the primordial creative and loving force, (26:50) which not only creates this world, but is also present in our creation. The Supreme Creator, who created the world of RA, is the Creator of RA. (27:02) He is the Father of God RA. This world is the world of God RA, where all the worlds Yavi, Navi and Prav are located.

(27:12) The Creator RA, in the person of the White Tsar, is now directly fulfilling all necessary functions to bring the entire world of RA into its primary heavenly state. This means the complete elimination, de-incarnation and transformation of all destructions into constructions. (27:34) The Creator RA has activated, let's call it figuratively, a separator, where the grain is separated from the chaff and each of us has the opportunity to choose between light and darkness. There is such a universal heavenly law. It is not necessary to save what does not wish to be saved. If they do not wish it, they go to elimination, de-incarnation, to be transformed into pure light energy of the Supreme Rod Tribe.

(28:05) This is what is happening now on all levels and that is why we are living in a time of epochal change. The events are caused by a cosmic cycle. Everything will change, whether we want it or not. (28:18) Even you are consciously forced to choose a side, which is the final phase before the birth of a new world. This is called the Great Harvest.

(28:29) We are all involved in a conflict where the winner takes all. The winner is always the light, because where there is light, darkness will be transformed into light or destroyed. If you have watched the film up to this point, you understand that you are facing a life choice. (28:50) You are in the middle of a great battle, which takes the form of ideas, technologies and ideologies.

¹ This will be the harvest of souls for Satan who will fail to enter Christ's Kingdom.

(28:58) At the end of times, a military operation is also underway. The enemy has set brotherly nations [such as the Ukraine and Russia] against each other. This final battle is the reconciliation of the gods, (29:09) where their mutual hatred will burn out. By realizing the truth about who is behind the war, fratricidal bloodshed will end. At that moment, the spirit of the Russian nation will awaken, leading and uniting the entire world. (29:28) This is what we have heard in prophecies, the crucial role the Russian nation plays in global events.

(29:35) The organizers of global genocide have nothing good awaiting them. The secrets of the false regime (have already been revealed. The vertical power of the dark forces, where the dead rule the dead, (29:48) is collapsing, and the spiders in the jar are beginning to devour each other. Perhaps it cannot be otherwise at the end of times, but in the presidential elections, people chose a dead man.

(30:02) By realizing the facts of this theater, a great cleansing is coming. Officials are being hunted by people with great abilities. All these traitors to humanity are without the right to continue the restoration of their lineage. (30:17) They have no right to spiritual development in the universe. Therefore, their elimination is necessary. As you can see, the elites are betraying each other and will want to flee. But there is nowhere to go. (30:29) There is no place on Earth where they can hide from the forces of light.

(30:34) Everyone has been given a choice by the White Tsar. Either you are human or non-human. Either you admit your mistakes and repent, or you are not human and are subject to inevitable destruction. (30:48) All persons have already taken their place in the course of events. Great changes are in full swing. The White Tsar and his associates prepared everything carefully. (31:03) We are at the center of an evolutionary leap. Commonly referred to as the apocalypse. Everything hidden becomes revealed, and everything revealed becomes clear and transparent.

(31:15) A battle of cosmic proportions is underway. The financial collapse we are seeing live has brought out the lowest level in people's behavior. All the demons have awakened. (31:29) And that is why it is said that the dead will rise from their graves and hell will be empty. These events have allowed the forces of light to manifest and unite living people around the center of power created by the White Tsar. (31:45) The center is under the supervision and protection of the higher forces of light, especially the Creator RA and the God RA.

(31:53) Each of us is responsible for our actions and thoughts. Everything that happens can only occur in accordance with the will of humanity. We are the children of the gods. We are the image and continuation of our Creators. Therefore, with our intentions and thoughts, we open permission for the actions of the light forces.

(32:13) We need to take responsibility and start acting. Only then will we gain knowledge, abilities and new technologies that we will discover when we choose a side in the battle where all impurities will be revealed. (32:30) Before us lies the Golden Age, but not everyone deserves to enter it. We must definitively cleanse ourselves of darkness. (32:40) The most powerful beings – in our understanding: gods, higher developed beings – are already incarnated on earth and are at the forefront of this eternal war between light and darkness in the form of ordinary people. The dark side is at the peak of its power. (32:58) The light country has awakened its powers, the level of which is many times higher than the capabilities of the dark ones. Each side has its own messiah.

(33:08) The dark side has nowhere left to advance. With the help of the media, the dark leader is trying to keep people in fear. The leader of the forces of light was born and lives in Russia, just as clairvoyance predicted.

(33:22) Now the moment has come. I will reveal to you who the White Tsar is. We will compare the information to see how the prophecies align with reality and I will show you an important document and the process of how someone becomes the White Tsar. (33:39) You may now be asking, how can you know who is the one the whole world is waiting for? You will probably agree with me when I say that the best experience is your own experience. And since I have witnessed the actions of this man over the past four years, I decided that before the events (33:56) that are yet to come, I must announce to the world that the White Tsar, whose name is known to the beings of light and darkness, is among us. He is recognized by all those who control global processes. (34:08) His name is Alexander Nikolaevich Paramonov. [At this point in the video, starting at time stamp 34:10, Alexander Paramonov is shown on the screen.]

(34:11) Even his surname and name, when analyzed in detail, indicate his destiny. Pa-Ra means Heavenly Father. We have already discussed what RA means. When we examine further, “Mon,” where “M” means “materialized,” “O” means “Cone” (i.e., “law”), and “N” means “Our Heavenly.” So, materialized Heavenly Cone. (34:31) The Heavenly Father came with a mission from the Heavenly Cone, that is, from the Supreme Rod Tribe [the lineage of the Most High]. (34:37) If he comes from the Cone, he is a forefather, a man of the Supreme Rod Tribe, who came into our world to fulfill his mission, his destiny. He is called the Creator RA.

(34:50) I have witnessed actions that averted a third world war, which should have already happened, but it hasn't, and there will certainly be no world war.² This is thanks to the White Tsar, who, just as clairvoyants say, is already among us, and is acting for the benefit of all humanity.

(35:09) Alexander the Great, (a.k.a.) Alexander of Macedon, (a.k.a.) Iskander, Genghis Khan, Tamerlane [a.k.a. Timur] – these are all the same person, described from different angles, a defender of the people, an eagle, a leader. (35:21) He has come again in the person of Alexander Nikolaevich Paramonov. He is the same person who liberated humanity from the dark forces before the beginning of the last dark period on Earth, more than a thousand years ago, which is also called the Night of Svarog or Kali Yuga. (35:42) Today, at the end of times, he is liberating once again.

(35:46) I feel your doubts. I will dispel them with information about Alexander's journey, which he went on before becoming the White Tsar.

(35:53) Much of it aligns with the prophecies of Karulsky and Nostradamus. The predictions say that the White Tsar is an ordinary man) from the crowd. (36:03) In appearance, he does not stand out, except for his views on the world, and he makes a name for himself, rising from below, illuminating the truth, which he continues to spread in conversations and through specific actions, which he does with his closest associates. (36:21) His entire entourage possesses a great number of superpowers, together with the light gods incarnated here on Earth, who protect the Tsar, they control a great army of light, the fleet that circles above our heads, (36:36) and has recently become visible in the sky. Together, they fulfill the will of God and adjust the course of events in the past, present and future.

(36:48) Alexander has already demonstrated his abilities to the security forces. Generals have given up trying to control Alexander. They realized it was impossible, and some even lost their lives in the process. (37:02) Although several attempts were made to kill the Tsar, for supernatural reasons, none of them succeeded.

(37:11) As Nostradamus wrote, Alexander, the White Tsar, did not appear suddenly. Throughout his life journey, he studied the world to understand its processes and visited numerous sacred places. (37:24) He restored old dormant egregores, opening doors and portals to a completely new world. He went through initiations, a school that prepared him for this significant path. (37:37) At one institute under Putin, he observed and oversaw Illuminati families. He came into possession of various historical artifacts, including Ring of Life, which the Nazi Ahnenerbe had been searching for all over the world.

(37:53) As you heard in (Stefan) Karulsky's prophecies, it is written that a boy with royal blood will ascend the throne. Alexander Nikolaevich Paramonov is of the bloodline of Ivan the Terrible, of the Rarog lineage. (38:07) You heard correctly, not Rurik, but Rarog. The name of this important lineage was distorted by German historians because Germans cannot pronounce RA. RA Rog means the Rod tribe of RA. (38:21) This lineage originates from the great river Radon, which today is known as the Volga River.

(38:27) As you can see, the prophecy is not mistaken. Alexander is of royal lineage. What boy was he (Stefan Karulsky) referring to? The answer to this question lies in the confirmation of the spiritual lineage, from the spiritual brotherhood White Spiritual Boy and the brotherhood Alpha Omega. (38:59) Already in the year 2012, Alexander told his brother that he felt the arrival of guardians who would pass something on to him. The guardians, who are the children of God RA, performed constructive deeds on the night of Svarog. (39:15) Alexander was given assets and confirmation of spiritual lineage, spiritual genealogy. Salamin Rizal, a direct descendant from the era of the god Salim, passed everything on (39:28) to his spiritual father Alexander, who is the 13th White Spiritual Boy, breaking the curse cycle and opening the flow of evolution and liberation. The White Spiritual Boy, or as he is called, the White Tsar, confirmed his position by receiving the assets and spiritual genealogy. (39:57) The transfer of the document automatically signifies the recognition of the White Tsar, precisely the Tsar of Tsars ("King of Kings"). (40:05) The document depicts all the protectors of the spiritual lineage, spiritual codes and accounts. Karulsky was not mistaken.

(40:14) The White Spiritual Boy will ascend the throne. But why a boy? Because the entire consciousness of the Creators is childlike. They are all-knowing, but their consciousness is childlike. (40:28) Always. Because they are Creators, they are creative. The childlike consciousness of a child is what truly makes a Creator a great person. (40:39) We try to educate children, but children speak the language of the gods, they speak in images, they see other dimensions. The destructive matrix in which we live gradually erases everything from human memory. Adults no longer remember the power they possessed in childhood. (40:58) [...]

(41:00) What is the mission of the White Tsar? A spiritual mission. The Tsar must fill the world with spirituality. In all living things, reveal and fill it with spirituality. Because the spirit is the temple of God, and therefore the Temple of God must be on Earth.

(41:15) The transfer of assets and lineage in Alexander united all historical posts. These are the positions of the oldest and highest order on Earth, which has existed since the creation of man. (41:32) It is the Sovereign Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Rhodes and Malta. The Supreme Sovereign Order of Hospitallers. (41:39) The post of Grand Master of the Order is the one who activates the egregore, which actually happened in 2018 in Paris. Patrick Morrison and Jean-Pierre Templar were there. The Grand Master is a spiritual leader. At the same time, (41:57) Alexander is the great intendant and great treasurer, which means that he is the manager of the entire heritage, as stated in the founding charter of the most ancient order on Earth.

(42:10) Another important function of Alexander is the treasurer of the International Treasury Monetary One, M1. This is the center of power we spoke about, where all the world's assets are concentrated. (42:24) In 2018, Alexander took charge of the global financial system. Based on the M1 resolutions, all assets used by the former managers of the financial system leading the world to destruction were gradually blocked. (42:39) Do you think that if Alexander did not possess the immense abilities of the White Tsar, as described in the prophecies, he could have cut off access to assets from such powerful families and the entire structure (42:53) of darkness control, which believed itself untouchable and omnipotent? Thanks to Alexander, everything is concentrated in one center. (43:03) And all this energy, energy of the Creator RA, the energy of life, already serves all of humanity.

(43:10) M1 is the highest manifestation of light, the manifestation of the Creator RA. RA, the speech of God, is a vibration. As it is written: "In the beginning was the word." And this means that creation passes into speech. So if we talk about M1, we are talking about the code of the Creator.

(43:31) From M0, which is the code of earth and the Treasure of RA, it enters and manifests into M1. The global financial system for managing global assets, which is a very old technology, has been adopted by the forces of light. Thus Alexander took into his own hands the control mechanisms and all the assets of the world. Two sacred matrices were deactivated, and only one remained and it is in the hands of the light forces. (44:01) Alexander took all steps to transform the entire society and thus prevented the outbreak of the Third World War.

(44:08) When it became known that Alexander is the Tsar of Tsars, but it was not yet (officially confirmed, the news began to spread worldwide. Not everyone behaved amicably. (44:20) Vatican cardinals were afraid to communicate directly, so all congratulations were sent through their ambassadors. Even the Jews called Alexander Your Majesty. (44:32) Everyone who needed to know about it knew. People from various orders also honored Alexander with a personal visit.

So, let's summarize: (44:44) First, the spiritual lineage was passed on to the 13th heir, and then came the confirmation of the Tzar of Tzars through Sacred Ancestral Law.

(44:54) Information about the Tzar of Tzars and gratitude were revealed in the resolution of the Sovereign International Treasury M1, No. 10.

[A different narrator reads that statement by Alexander Paramonov (Sovereign International Treasury M1, Notification # 10):]

(45:03) As the chief treasurer of the International Treasury Monetary One, I would like to express my respect and gratitude for the decision to honor me with the status of the King of Kings, the highest status among sovereigns. (45:15) I express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to all those who listened to their hearts and voted for me. (45:20) And I express my appreciation to all those who didn't vote and abstained. I sincerely express gratitude to the custodians for the gifts they brought and the maps of the vaults (46:32) with the treasury of the Creator RA. I especially thank the custodians of Scandinavia for their gifts. I sincerely thank the sovereigns for their gifts in returning the sacred attributes and keys of the Creator RA. (45:42) I thank the Heads of State, and members of Royal Families who sent congratulatory messages and expressed assurances. And I want to assure those who wrote words of guidance. I confirm my solidarity and promise to honorably fulfill my duty to the peoples of the world for World Peace.

(46:00) I wish to assure everyone that I will carry this title with honor. And I will make every effort to build a new world in the Cone (Law) of Creation, where human life will truly be the highest value, and human rights will become the basis of the Rule of Law. (46:16) A world where there will be no poverty, wars, inequalities, or discrimination. (46:21) I expect support and help from all people on Earth who want to make this world a better place for themselves and future generations to live. (46:29) I declare that the Doors of the King of Kings are open to everyone who adheres to our noble goals, honors universal values, and comes to form synergy for the realization of common bright goals.

(46:38) Alexander is still trying to explain to the people, including high ranking spiritual leaders and government officials, that a Tsar is not someone who wears a crown on his head and commands. Tsar means a whole Aryan, a complete Aryan, a person who has developed all nine levels of consciousness. (46:57) Now Alexander and his assistants and guardians are building institutions and creating all the governing structures that will lead humanity out of the dark era. The world from the very beginning of its existence has been based on law. The highest is the divine right of the sovereign. After that comes international sovereign right, then confessional right, then forbidden Roman military law and forbidden admiralty law, that is, maritime corporate law.

(47:26) Based on the right of the Supreme Absolute Sovereign and the Heir of the entire Earth, the Tsar of Tsars, Alexander, on June 27, 2023, by a global sovereign act, established the World Council of Sovereigns. (47:43) The council is the supreme council of world governance, represented by nine sovereigns who cooperate with various entities to offer financial and economic support, to stabilize local and international global economic systems.

(48:00) Upon the awakening of the Order of Hospitallers, the World Sovereign Bank of the Order of Hospitallers was also restored, which is the first historical bank and the main regulator of the entire banking system.

(48:22) Nostradamus said that the White Tsar is destined to unite the Slavic nations and create a union of Asian and African countries. For this purpose, the Union of Sovereign Slavic Tribes was established, a diplomatic platform that communicates with other unions, the Asian Union and the African Union. The world is simply uniting.

(48:46) Karulsky spoke of how the Tsar will bring centuries of peace and prosperity, but the Russian people must go through difficult trials. The Russian nation is slowly awakening and their main task is to recognize the true enemy, unite, and help the Tsar of Tsars.

(49:05) As a patriot of his land, Alexander, along with his collaborators, has undertaken to restore the Soviet Union as a sovereign. A sovereign is eternal and indestructible. All information is available on the government website of the Soviet Union. (49:24) The restored State Bank of the Soviet Union began paying compensation to sovereign citizens of the Soviet Union. The clairvoyant saw correctly the people will go through a trial, but in the end, it will unite in the cooperative of Light Great Rus. The international cooperative unites cooperatives around the world in the Sunrise Program. (49:49) More than 100 cooperatives around the world are ready to provide their nations with everything they need, and thus, not only will the Russian nation unite, but the Russian nation will unite the entire world.

(50:05) This exact information was also mentioned in the prophecies that Russia will transform into the true Holy Rus, and all the nations of the world will be under its protection. Joy and liberation await us.

(50:18) As you can see, the White Tsar is already working for the good of us all. In the first years of his activity, he laid the foundations of the New World, as the clairvoyants say. Many things must be done visibly here on Earth in the form of institutions, (50:36) systems, and thus, an entire army of people voluntarily helps and builds everything needed without expecting any reward. We all perform simple tasks that are visible.

(50:47) However, this is very difficult for people to understand. Explaining all the processes taking place is complicated. Most of you don't even know where you live and who controls and manages you. I, along with many of my brothers, help Alexander to fulfill this bright mission. (51:04) And it is not for pride or fame. We are simple, ordinary people carrying out our mission. It is, first and foremost, a great responsibility and a lot of work. No one will do it for us and everyone can help build a new world, without ambition, in what they do best. [i.e., ordinary people can contribute to this project of building a bright, new world by volunteering and using whatever skills they have.]

(51:22) We have spoken about prophecies, the world we live in, and I have introduced you to the White Tsar, spoken of by the prophets. This is also called the Second Coming of the Messiah, the Savior, awaited by the entire world.

Now, at the end, (51:39) I have one last important question for you. Are you able to participate and help in transforming the world into a better, more beautiful one? Or will you wait until the turning point, as prophesied, that turning point when everyone will understand that Alexander Nikolaevich Paramonov is the White Tsar, (52:01) the Tsar of Tsars? I chose to be with Alexander, who is the bearer of sacred knowledge, who shows the path to unity and prosperity (52:10) and establishes a just order in a world without wars, based on justice, love, and mutual respect among nations. We all choose sides, and since we have free will, it is also up to you which side you choose.

[Alexander Paramonov:]

(52:29) As stated in the decrees, in the laws of Resolution M1, so it is today. When we touched on specifics, no one had anything, only philosophy, beautiful philosophy. (52:47) But when everyone saw the banking system RAM-0M1XAU, they were all shocked. There is money there, it is in accounts, they are active. The banking system is already prepared at a sufficiently high level. It is ready in the Soviet Union and in any other country.

(53:09) To provide such a system to a country takes about a week, setting up, so to speak, the system banking software, preparing documents, setting up banking security, connecting and opening, (53:26) already publicly opening for accounts of citizens in any country in the world. We can provide our system to all countries in the world and restore it.

(53:38) And this banking system, it is the real one. That is, there was no fiat financial system. There has always been only one system. The system is a good word, heavenly word. (53:56) There was a destructive fiat circuit, based on the Jamaica agreements, which was introduced and connected to the global financial system. Where they could steal, plunder, invent, falsify, and so on.

(54:12) And where are these energies that have practically captured all currencies? And currencies are means of payment, they are not money, they are payment technologies. Whether in paper form or some other form, money is only treasury notes, they are only backed [secured]. They don't have any debts. There is no debt money.

(54:32) And not only that, this is not a new system, it is simply a change of owners, masters who came not as capitalist owners, (54:43) but owners, from the word LAT, harmony, who came to Earth to fulfill their mission and restore the correct heavenly system for humanity's development. I will not repeat myself, read the M1 documents and you will understand everything. Everything is written there in specific words and phrases.

(55:04) The world financial system will only be managed by people who have reached a spiritual level of development, who are at a high level of development, it is not only controlled and monitored, but also operates autonomously, really for humans. (55:22) But it is guarded by the masters of the system. This means there will be a master of the system and spiritual masters of the system.

(55:30) I want to explain something about the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Rhodes and Malta. Why it is called the Supreme Sovereign Order of Hospitallers.

(55:39) Please do not confuse [this order] with the Crusaders, because Alexander Nevsky, Alexander the Great, Iskander, Genghis Khan, Tamerlane [who are one and the same person, as stated above] are the Grand Master and Grand Commander of the Order of St. John. You need to know that.

(55:55) Secondly, if you watch historical films and Vatican crap that is now being presented to you here under this whole situation, then you will understand everything. Notice there is a black cross on a white background. (56:08) The Order of St. John, the Order of the RUS, is a white cross on a black background. The white cross symbolizes the white light passing through this darkness, through this blackness.

(56:21) And he comes at that very moment and carries within himself the power, the possibilities and the mission of the four tribes of the Great Race – Dorians, Khorians, Svyatorussians and Rossinoks. (56:37) Precisely in the white light. And this cross affirms the white light. This cross is actually the cross Yanyin. It is the Slav Yanyin. This is the glorifying flow of Yanyin and the Knowing One living in it.

(56:51) This is knowledge. Cross Yanyin, that is, the Vanir, the ones who know the Heavenly God, these are the Creators of reality. It is precisely in the white light of reality. Therefore, this is deep, high cosmic, serious knowledge. This is the order (57:08) of Rus-Surs, Suri of the Earth. So you need to know this. These are our ancestors, this is space, this is what it is.

(57:17) This order is not French, not Vatican, not Maltese, and so on and so forth. The real order of Malta is not currently located in Malta or the Vatican. It exists in a secret form. It is a daughter order of the Order of Saint John. It exists by charter. He is not the sovereign; he only has sovereignty by charter of the Order of Saint John, because the Temple is one.

(57:48) And also the Order of the Templars:

(57:51) The Order of Mary Magdalene and Radamir Isii again is the red cross on a white background. The cross of blood on the square of the Templars, (58:02) who after the murder of Mary Magdalene and her daughter, that is, the daughter of Christ, Radomir Isii, was applied with an oath to the white square.³

And it was after this that the so-called Cathars, (58:17) the spirit of Tara, Ka is the spirit of Tara, it is Tarkh and Tara, the children of Perun,⁴ who, so to speak, are the Order of Saint John, guardians of ancient knowledge, (58:28) of all the games of the gods, since the creation of humanity, one and a half billion years. You cannot even imagine what that is.

(58:37) So, they gave to the Templars, after that, when Radomir [Christ] and Mary Magdalene, his wife, from Magdala — that is, from northern Europe, yes, from the valley of the magi — brought the knowledge of (58:50) building systems for organizing a bright human, so to speak, society; they gave the Templars the, well, as they say, treasures. (59:00) They actually gave them the knowledge with which it became possible to create the system. And the first correct model of the financial system was founded by the Order of the Templars.

(59:13) Do you understand what's going on? The Jesuits, bastards, whose symbol is the black cross on a white background, are traitors. They reversed everything. They even reversed this. So do not say, “Ah, the Crusaders.” (59:30) Alexander Nevsky fought against them. It is all a lie. Pay attention to everything I have told you. You can't let demons into your universe. You shouldn't.

(59:40) Human consciousness is also a universe. Everything is a universe. So a person is a universe, and their essence is the soul. The soul is a high level of essence. Even the mind of a person, it is all a universe.

(59:53) What you infuse in yourself, what you fill yourself with, that is what you become. If you infuse yourself with light, and light is knowledge, if you infuse in yourself this purity, this great experience of the ancestors, these are the right paths, the right actions, and so on, (1:00:11) if you do everything properly, then you become great. And you don't even have to admit that someone can stop you somewhere.

(1:00:18) I embrace you all and love you. Stay strong. We are all one life. We are all one goal. Believe me, I was killed. I was there. I know what I am talking about. Love one another. Be happy everyone and be very strong.

³ Several clarifying points:

- These facts probably occurred in a life of Christ prior to (or after) the one depicted in the Gospels.
- Reincarnation, both for Christ and for ordinary humans, is NOT incompatible with Christ's teachings, contrary to conventional (Christian) wisdom.
- The Order of the Templars was created in response to these murders (as I understand it).
- The flag of that order is a red cross on a white background.
