What does the Household of Faith do with the MISSIONS Sunday Giving?

We acknowledge each gift with an official receipt with the Household of Faith stamp. Even if you choose to give anonymously (i.e. your name is not published with the amount you gave), you will receive a receipt if you send in with the Missions Sunday envelope.

Next, we will publish a full listing of donors in the 27th December issue of Fidelity. The list will be added to our Statement of Accounts for December 2020.

All our receipts and expenditure for missions are recorded in our monthly statements, the current balance standing at over S$22,000.

There are many varied ways we use the Missions Fund.

Most of the missions contribution goes to the support of evangelical work in Asia, e.g. India, Indonesia and Papua New Guinea.

In Myanmar, we help brother Stephen Sang in providing potluck for their after-worship fellowship. This helps disadvantaged villagers to have their physical and spiritual needs met.

In Philippines, we work with brother Chito Cusi to help families who are hospitalised with the Covid-19 virus, and victims of the Taal volcano eruption.

In India, we help brother Joel Madiki's relief work against those affected by floods.

In Malaysia, we contribute to the retirement fund of brother Lau Kin Fatt, in recognition of his long years of service in bringing the message to people in Kuala Lumpur, Petaling Jaya, Penang and Puchong.

When brother Brandi Kendall, missionary and lecturer at the Sunset International Bible Institute passed away last year, we sent funds to help with the funeral expenses.

Often we encourage preachers like Jhun Ma (Tuao, Philippines), Jojo Ramos (Baguio, Philippines) and Joe Swamy (Mumbia, India) with their good work for the Lord.

The Household of Faith is careful to evaluate every request carefully and put our missions dollars to good use.

One day, we want to use it to send our members on missions trips and support a full-time missionary.

Fidelity is published weekly by the Household of Faith, Singapore, currently live streaming every Sunday at 6pm at <https://tinyurl.com/HOFstream> until we are allowed to assemble back at the Metropolitan YMCA, Stevens Road, Singapore 257854. ESTABLISHED IN THE

FAITH

Introduction

Coming to the end of another year
The pandemic blew everything out of the water
So important to hang on to our faith
2 Peter 1:10 Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble.

The Danger

- Old Chinese saying:
First generation builds business
Second generation maintains it
Third generation squanders it
- Judges 2:10-19 – The Cycle of Revival and Decline
Also all that generation were gathered to their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, who didn't know Yahweh, nor yet the work which He had worked for Israel... They forsook Yahweh... Yahweh raised up judges... they didn't cease from their doings, nor from their stubborn way.
- Church is one generation away from extinction
- Churches are on the decline

The Cycle

First generation PASSIONATE	Fear God; keep His commands (Inward desire shapes life)
Second generation POLITE	Somewhat follow God's commands (Confirm by convenience)
Third generation PERVERTED	Leave God's commands (Reject by preference)

Reasons for Decline

1) New Christians are baptized, but not taught to share their faith

- Many converts stay Learners all their lives

Hebrews 5:12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

Missionaries of the New Testament

As we look forward to our Missions Sunday next week, let us look at some missionaries of the New Testament.

Acts 6 and 8 tell us of the first New Testament missionary, Philip. He was sent to Samaria to preach to large crowds with great success. While in the midst of a great soul-winning campaign, God called him to make a detour to the desert to teach just one person - an Ethiopian eunuch. Philip continued on his trip to the coast and eventually to the city of Caesarea. He stayed in Caesarea and established a church there.

Acts 13-28 recounts the missionary efforts of the apostle Paul, the greatest of all missionaries. On his first missionary journey he was accompanied by Barnabas and John Mark. During Paul's second missionary journey, he travelled with Silas.

We read about Barnabas in Acts 13:1-13. He was first introduced as Joseph (Acts 4:36), but was better known as Barnabas. This name meant "son of encouragement" which suited him well. Barnabas vouched for Paul when he was first brought to the church at Jerusalem (Acts 9:26-30) and helped Paul get started in his missionary career (Acts 13:1-13). We also see him encouraging John Mark when Paul was disappointed with him abruptly dropping out of his first missionary Journey.

We read of Aquila and Priscilla in Acts 18. They were tentmakers like Paul, but were always looking for opportunities to share the gospel. Aquila and Priscilla took time to teach Apollos, a powerful preacher more on the subject of the baptism of Jesus.

There are many missionaries in the Bible. Some, like Philip, were called of God. Others like Paul brought the gospel to virgin lands, establishing churches wherever he went, returning to visit them and teaching them with his many epistles. Then there are those like Aquila and Priscilla who sought opportunities to teach others.

The Household of Faith wants to be a church that supports the efforts of such sacrificial mission-minded workers, bringing the message of salvation to the lost. If you would like to know more about any of our mission fields, please drop us a note on our website, www.hofsg.com or speak with our minister.

13th December 2020

When I was a young minister, I was fascinated with churches in America that would set a goal of a million dollars on a given Sunday, usually for their building fund or to pay off some debt. I thought how wonderful it would be if we in Singapore could do it for missions, not just as a one-off project but an annual event.

I then started Missions Sunday for the congregation and was greatly encouraged that within the first decade, more than a million dollars was given to missions.

This increased our missions outreach to many countries in Asia, and provided funds for member willing to make a mission trip. This was further extended to provide full sponsorship to our youth for missions trips as well as the funding of medical missions in Philippines and Indonesia.

The Missions fund led to the planting of the church in Batam, Indonesia and Tuao, Philippines. In due time, more than 200 members had a taste of missions.

When I started the Household of Faith, missions was very much on my mind. The first year we had a missions retreat on the morning of Good Friday, with participants from Indonesia, Malaysia and China. In December that same year, we had our first Missions Sunday.

Today is our 3rd Missions Sunday. Already, more than $6,000 has come in and we are looking forward to a generous outpouring of gifts for missions.

Without missions, most of us would not have become Christians. Someone cared enough to leave family and country to bring us the saving gospel of Jesus Christ.

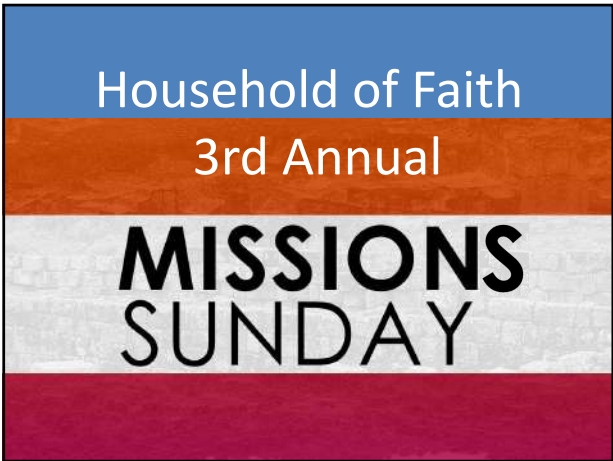

This is because Jesus was the greatest missionary of all. He left heaven and came to earth, to suffer and give His life, so that we might be saved.

Let us be mindful of not only the missionaries and ministers that we support, but keep in prayer all who are doing God's work.

MISSIONS SUNDAY

Introduction

We exist because of Missionaries

First missionary to Singapore from the churches of Christ was Ira Y. Rice Jr and his family in 1954

Isaiah 65:1: "I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, 'Here I am, here I am,' to a nation that was not called by my name."

We are saved to save others

2 Timothy 2:2 The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

You're to teach others the same truths of the Gospel that you've been taught, so that those you teach will in turn teach others.

Matthew 5:13-14 You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavour, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can't be hidden.

MISSIONS SUNDAY

Introduction
Exist because of Missionaries
Saved to Save Others

We are to Support Missionaries

2 Corinthians 2:15-17 For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:8-9 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so.

Conclusion: Let Us Pay It Forward

2 Corinthians 4:3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost

Romans 10:14-15 How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher? And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Gospel of peace, Who bring glad tidings of good things!"

Below are some of the missionaries and preachers that the Household of Faith supports. Can you guess who is missing? Can you name the ones in the photos and the countries they represent? Besides supporting the preaching of the gospel, we have sent funds to help those who are affected by the Covid-19 virus, as well as relief works in India and Philippines.

20th December 2020

Time & Tide

As the saying goes, time and tide waits for no man. Pandemic or no pandemic, we are now at the end of an extremely difficult year, with 5 days to Christmas and 12 days to the new year.

First, we must be thankful that the Lord has watched over us and our families, keeping us safe while millions have been infected and thousands have perished from the Covid-19 virus.

Then focus on your family members. If there is a family gathering in the works, make this year extra special with your contribution and ang pows for each member of the family. Include a short note, and yes, the box below.

Next, we can learn to treasure each day that the Lord has kept us safe, even now on the last few days of 2020. There is much we can do, and people we can reach, especially during the festive season.

Every day is precious. The pandemic has taught us how unpredictable life is and how uncertain our health, jobs and businesses can become.

A homemade dish or cake to our neighbours with best wishes and scriptures will be much appreciated. Mention our website as we try to reach out with a listening ear as well. Or enclose the dotted box below.

Renew your faith to walk closer with God and dedicate your service and gifts to Him. Indeed, 1 John 2:16-17 confirms that "all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's. The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever."

If this looks like a lot of trouble, you can always send a text to your friends to wish them all the best for the new year. Take a photo of the dotted box including the QR code below.

How Should Christians Regard Christmas?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Introduction

Romans 14:1-6 Now receive one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions.

One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has received him.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.

One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind.

He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it.

He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks.

Introduction

The Bible Record

Luke 2:8-14 There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

---

---

---

---

---

Introduction

The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough."

Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, On earth peace, good will toward men."

Introduction
The Bible Record

The Significance

Romans 5:12-18 Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned...

For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many...

Introduction
The Bible Record

For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life.

2020 has been a surprising year for everyone. The severity and consequences of the Coronavirus pandemic caught the world unprepared. Many have been infected and a good number have perished. Those who have survived or are not infected with the virus lost jobs, suffered decline in business and even affected their family and social relationships. So what is there to give thanks for in 2020?

In my sermon tonight, I will be encouraging all to be grateful, find opportunities for gratitude and give thanks to God for 2020.

First, if you are reading this, pat yourself on the back for surviving the pandemic. Now that countries are rolling out vaccines, we have reason to be grateful.

Next, the third phase will start on the 28th of this month. We are exploring with the Metropolitan YMCA as well as other places, options for the Household of Faith to assemble again.

Then there are the opportunities that the Lord has provided us this year to reach out for Him. Let us list some of them.

1. When we were no longer able to assemble together, several came together to help us begin live streaming on Sundays at 6pm. This has enabled us to reach out to many more, with more than a hundred viewers from all over the world.

2. When members needed help with Bible materials, devotionals and aids, we launched a mobile-friendly website, neatly laid out with links, materials, photos and videos with up-to-date news and direct links to our weekly live stream.

3. Members and regular visitors are able to receive the weekly bulletin, Fidelity by mail as early as Wednesday, as well as the quarterly daily devotional, Power for Today. The Lord's supper communion kits are also delivered.

4. Members in turn continued to keep in touch through WhatsApp (weekly sermon Powerpoints and soft copy of Fidelity) and the Facebook group, Household of Faith Supporters and Friends.

5. When we are not assembling in person, we have saved a tidy sum from rentals, keeping our accounts at a robust balance. Members, visitors and supporters have been faithfully giving as the Lord has prospered each week, and also to our Missions Sunday.

There is so much we are grateful to the Lord in 2020. In spite of the uncertainties, God has opened doors for us to do much more.

We look forward to be able to assemble again in the near future. Keep on keeping on as we cross over to a new year with its attendant promises - "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you ... to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11).

Introduction

Last Sunday of the year

GOOD RIDDANCE 2020!

WELCOME 2021!

WE HAVE HIGH HOPES FOR YOU!

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

1 Thessalonians 5:18
Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Ephesians 5:20
Giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ

Psalms 32:7-8
You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with shouts of deliverance. I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

1. You Survived the Pandemic

So many have been infected; so many died
 >50 million infections; >1.2 million deaths

Did you take time to thank God?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. You became Stronger

Growth comes in difficult times

Isaiah 43:2
When you go through deep waters, I will be with you.

Isaiah 41:10
Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.

Jeremiah 29:11
For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

1 Survived the Pandemic
2 Became Stronger

3. Opportunities to Serve

Social media used more than ever in 2020 – you can uplift another person

Zoom and other apps keep people together

We find more time for others during lock-ins

Ephesians 5:16 Making the best use of the time, because the days are evil.

Colossians 4:5 Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time.

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

1 Survived the Pandemic
2 Became Stronger
3 Opportunities to Serve

4. Reaching out to Multitudes

Unable to assemble, but started live streaming

2 Timothy 4:2 Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.

5. Creative Ways to Serve

Never paid much attention to original website

Cannot assemble in person; bringing resources into homes

6. New Methods of Outreach

1 Corinthians 9:20-22 To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; to those who are without law, as without ... To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some.

Conclusion

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Corinthians 9:10-11 Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. 2 Corinthians 9:10-11
