Melissa Schultz

“Time Management and Organization”

Melissa Schultz, is a serial entrepreneur, who started Alpha Omega Professional Services, a virtual assistant business, 24 years ago at a time when cell phones barely existed and it was still common to have dial-up internet. Can you imagine?!

She also owns Alpha Omega Wellness, sharing her passion for integrative medicine and helping people live their healthiest lives using doTERRA essential oils.

Recently, after 3 years in the making, she started Alpha Omega Success, and began coaching, teaching and inspiring mompreneuers all over the country. She and her husband Matt just celebrated 25 years of marriage. She is a mom to adult children, Ryan and Katie and enjoys time spent with her family, kayaking and spending time on the river.

She also serves as Secretary for our Women With Purpose non profit as well as Director of the LaCrosse chapter
