The study showed a rise of 8% from the previous year with 27% growth in the number of small businesses using alternative payment solutions. Payment gateway provider FVMM has recently completed a project for an SME in order to demonstrate how they can offer a merchant account for a customer with a tight budget. The client has an e-commerce website and requires a secured gateway solution that would fit into their working environment and offer the flexibility required to deal with their current business situation. This is a useful tool for SMEs that are on a tight budget, but are required to support the high volume and a large number of transactions that they deal with on a daily basis. Using FVMM's online payment gateway solution the client 520fdb1ae7
