

Director of Fund Management (Bermuda)

A fast-growing global fintech firm is seeking an experienced Director of Fund Management to lead the oversight and strategic direction of a newly acquired tokenized treasury and money market fund. This is a unique opportunity to operate at the intersection of traditional asset management and digital-asset innovation.

What You'll Do

- Oversee daily fund operations, pricing, and investment workflows
- Manage key relationships with administrators, custodians, and technology partners
- Ensure regulatory compliance across both traditional finance and digital-asset frameworks
- Support investment strategy, liquidity management, and risk oversight
- Collaborate with product, tech, and compliance teams on tokenization and on-chain processes
- Represent the fund in internal governance discussions and external communications

What You Bring

- 10+ years in fund operations, asset management, financial services, or fintech
- Strong understanding of digital assets, tokenization, or blockchain-driven financial products
- Ability to manage cross-functional teams and external service providers
- Exceptional communication and leadership skills
- Bachelor's degree in a relevant field

This role offers the chance to shape the future of tokenized finance in a high-impact leadership position. If this sounds like an exciting next step, please apply or get in touch to express your interest!
