

Communications Support – Pricing Guide

Keeping your communications fresh, engaging, and mission-focused is essential—especially during seasons of transition or limited staff capacity. After years of creating weekly and monthly content for parishes and nonprofit organizations, I’ve found that a simple monthly subscription works best. It offers predictable costs, consistent quality, and a steady stream of tailored content aligned with your mission and voice.

These packages are designed to be affordable, sustainable, and flexible—relieving clergy, staff, and volunteer leaders from the extra work of producing communications while ensuring your message continues to inspire and connect with your community.

“Hiring even a 10-hour/week staff member could cost $800/month—this offer starts at less than half that.”

“Your voice deserves to be heard clearly and consistently each week—without adding to your workload.”

All content is customized for your organization (church or nonprofit agency), formatted for easy use, and designed to keep your community connected and inspired.
