

Sandline Discovery Receives CV Magazine 2018 Technology Innovator Award

Sandline Discovery was recognized as Most Innovative eDiscovery Service Provider – USA

FALLS CHURCH, Va. - June 12, 2018 - PRLog -- Sandline Discovery, a premier litigation support and eDiscovery service provider assisting legal teams in the United States and globally, announced that it was recognized by CV Magazine with a 2018 Technology Innovator Award for Most Innovative eDiscovery Service Provider – USA.

Sandline Discovery was recognized for its commitment to providing innovative and cost-effective eDiscovery solutions. A Relativity Development Partner, Sandline has created dozens of data processing and document review enhancements for the Relativity eDiscovery ecosystem and tackled numerous software integration and custom development projects to assist with evolving client needs.

"We're proud to be recognized for our technology innovation and customer service," says Jon Canty, President of Sandline Discovery. "Customer service and innovation are two of our top priorities and drive much of what we do on a daily basis."

The Technology Innovator Awards celebrate the talented individuals, teams and firms that provide some of the best and most innovative products and services in their respective industry. The award platform ensures that companies who are on the forefront of innovation to meet the needs of the consumer are recognized for their efforts. Winners are decided by a combination of votes gathered from CV Magazine's network of respected industry partners combined with rigorous in-house research performed by the magazine's dedicated network of industry insiders and corporate specialists.

"The explosion of digital technology in recent years has increased the need for technology products and services dramatically. Enterprises in every industry sector rely upon technology to facilitate their own growth. As such, opportunities for technology firms continue to expand considerably. It is my pleasure to congratulate the winners and wish them the best of luck for the future," said Sophie Milner, CV Magazine Awards Coordinator.
