

A Catholic to Know

Juan Diego (1474–1548) was a reluctant saint. When the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to him at Tepeyac in Mexico, he asked her to find someone more worthy to take her message to the bishop. She appeared three times, always with the dark skin of the native people, adorned with native and Christian symbols, and speaking Juan's own Nahuatl language. Juan convinced the bishop when an image of Mary miraculously appeared on the inside of his cloak. Because Juan Diego said yes, Our Lady of Guadalupe remains a sign of hope and compassion for the Mexican people and for millions of believers around the world.

Witness and Share

These sentences describe what Catholics believe. Listen carefully as they are read. Ask yourself, "How strong are my Catholic beliefs?"

My Way to Faith

- I am familiar with the Scripture stories of Jesus' birth.
- I believe that Mary is the Mother of God.
- I pray prayers like the Hail Mary and other prayers that honor Mary.
- I share the message of Christmas throughout the year through my words and interactions with others.
- I welcome Jesus into my own life.

Share Your Faith

Think about how you can make Jesus' presence more evident for yourself and those around you. Where do you see Jesus acting in your life? Write your ideas in your own words on the lines. Invite a family member or a friend to share how Jesus is present in his or her life.
