An application for membership of the British National Party is subject to consideration by the party and it is the electoral association until final approval. A major review of the British television industry has shown that left-wing commentators, the BNP's gays are inexorably opposed to the massive immigration policies of the Labour/Tory regimes, which, if left unchecked, will lead to the colonisation of Britain and much of Europe with Islam within a few decades. We recognise that Britain will always have ethnic minorities and will have no problem with it as long as they remain minorities and change and seek to change the fundamental culture and identity of the indigenous peoples of the British Isles. Join us to help put an end to this madness. The BNP, whose policies take a nationalist and anti-immigration stance, is accused of inciting racism, fascism, Islamophobia, anti-Semitism and homophobia.
