

Andreas Loizides

Board Member

Andreas is a senior commercial lawyer and data privacy expert with nearly 40 years post qualification experience. He has held leadership roles across a range of sectors, including facilities, travel and renewables, financial services and housing finance.

His expertise includes guiding senior business leaders and executive boards through mergers, acquisitions, regulatory compliance, and complex data privacy frameworks.

One page profile

What people who know me like and admire about me

I care about people and their wellbeing

I am empathetic

I'm content to listen more than I talk

I treat everyone with respect

I am honest and trustworthy

I care deeply about my family

I am constructively curious

What is important to me

That my family and friends are happy and healthy

Time to enjoy life

Keeping fit and healthy

Doing the best I can in everything I do

Stimulating and healthy debate

Keeping an open, inquisitive mind

What is important for me

Enjoying life, my family and friends

A cool roof over my head in Summer, and a warm one in Winter

Being fit and healthy

Keeping myself occupied

Quality sounds, music, debate and discussion

Walking our dog Cece, on the beach preferably

How I like to be supported

With a positive, constructive attitude

As a part of the team with a view on the goal

Honesty and openness is always welcomed

A sense of humour is always appreciated