Super English

Unit 20 - Lesson 3 - Cultures

Vocabulary

Culture - Vocabulary

lively: full of life and energy; interesting and exciting (adj)

The park was lively, with kids playing and birds singing.

Culture - Vocabulary

gem: a jewel (= precious stone), especially when cut into a nice shape; something really liked (n)

The small village was a hidden gem that only a few travelers knew about.

Culture - Vocabulary

attire: clothes, especially of a particular or formal type (n)

For the corporate event, everyone was advised to wear formal attire.

Culture - Vocabulary

scar: a mark left (as on the skin) after an injury has healed (n)

She has a scar on the back of her shoulder from the accident.

Let's Read!

Super English

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Ever wondered about Kenya? It's this fantastic spot in Africa, full of lively stories, exciting dances, wild animals, and mouth-watering food. Come on; let's go on this exciting journey to discover what makes Kenya a gem!

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Jump, Jump with the Maasai!

Have you ever watched a jumping competition? In Kenya, the Maasai tribe turns jumping into an art. Dressed in bright red attire and eye-catching jewelry, they challenge each other: Who can leap the highest? This isn't just a playful contest—it's deeply rooted in their traditions.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Ready for a Safari?

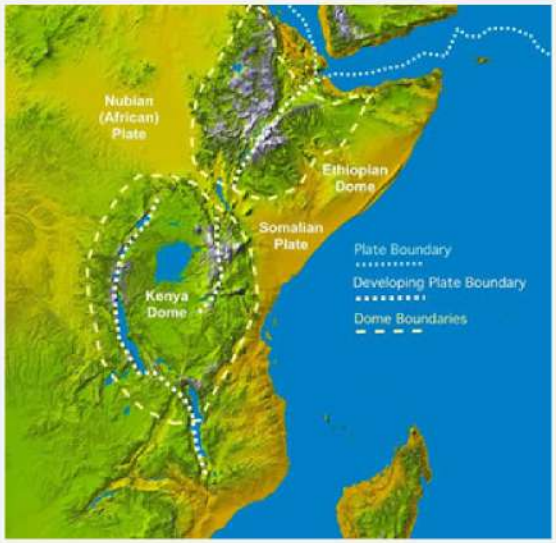
Close your eyes and imagine: You're cruising in a jeep across vast grasslands called savannas. Out of the blue, you spot lions relaxing, elephants walking, and giraffes munching on tree leaves! This wild journey, known as a safari, is a classic Kenyan adventure. And those iconic, tall trees across the landscape? Those are the majestic acacia trees, guardians of the plains.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Swahili: The Heartbeat of Kenya

Ever heard of "Hakuna Matata"? Yes, that catchy phrase from the movie “The Lion King!” In Swahili, it means "no worries." Swahili isn't just a language in Kenya—it's a music of life, full of words that capture the spirit and soul of the people.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!



The Remarkable Rift Valley

Imagine Earth having a huge, long scar. That's the Rift Valley for you. Stretching far and wide, it's dotted with shimmering lakes, ancient rock formations, and secrets from a time long past. This natural wonder is a haven for explorers and those curious about our planet's history.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Delicious Kenyan Delights!

Feeling peckish? Kenyan dishes will tantalize your taste buds! Savor ugali, a maize-based dish, and relish the green goodness of sukuma wiki. Every bite tells a story of Kenya's diverse culinary traditions.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

Mombasa: Where Waves Meet Wonders

Lying along the shimmering coast is Mombasa, a city blending ancient charm with modern-day vibrancy. Picture sandy beaches alongside age-old forts. Explore bustling markets where you can buy kente cloth—a vibrant fabric that showcases African artistry.

Kenya: Where Adventure and Culture Shine!

There you have it! From thrilling Maasai jumps to mouthwatering meals and from safaris amidst wild beasts to sun-soaked Mombasa streets, Kenya is a treasure trove of experiences. It's a world where age-old traditions dance with nature's wonders. So, are you packed yet? Kenya's magic awaits!

Grammar

Probability

Fill in the blanks with might have, might not have, or couldn't have.

1. I saw her at the party last night, so she _____ been at a concert in another city at the same time.
2. I heard a noise in the garden; it _____ been a cat.
3. She _____ had time to finish it last night because she was a little busy.
4. He looks familiar; I _____ met him at the park.
5. The book was published in 2020, so she _____ read it in 2015.
6. She _____ been in a meeting because she didn't answer her phone.

Phonics!

Super English

Phonics

The schwa is an unstressed vowel that sounds like a soft short U (/uh/) or short I (/ĭ/)

analysis

banana

cafeteria

cinema

delicate elephant

eleven gorilla

octopus

Pennsylvania

principal

vegetarian

Super English

Super English

See You Next time!