bag. Webb and Marie learn that he was chosen because no one was more experienced and deadly, and Marie was kidnapped because Webb would never have agreed to the mission if the CIA had told him the truth. Because Webb has now seen what Sheng is capable of, and since Echo has died him, he decides to go back into battle and kill kill Fanatic. McAllister accompanies Webb, and during their search for Shen, McAllister explains that he must be the one to kill Shen, and Shen will trust only McAllister for agreeing to a date, and that was McAllister's plan from the beginning. They deceive Shen into meeting them to destroy one copy of confidential documents that can expose him, in exchange for money. The meeting of Sheng, Webb and McAllister takes place on the Chinese border with the help of Wong, a previous friend of Bourne. During the meeting, McAllister sees that Sheng has already grabbed confidential documents from Victoria Peak, and he shot Sheng before he can shoot the latter. But on the scene comes the deadly Bourne, who stabbed Shen. Webb, McAllister, and Wong escaped in Shen's helicopter because of the shooting. Eventually, it is revealed that Lin Wenzu and McAllister survived, Havilland thanks McAllister for his acts of bravado, saying he would be promoted, Mo and Conklin left for the U.S., and Webb and Marie have now flown to Hawaii to rest. Marie tells Webb that everyone has a dark side that they have to accept. Jason Bourne is the dark side of David Webb, who returned to save Marie.
