But with Navier still in the picture, Rashta must devise a plan to safeguard her own interests. I just received the most amazing package from Harumio! The composition of my new novel set is simply incredible - 8 volumes packed with an unpublished side story, a special bookcase, unique goods, and even 10 and 3 illustrated postcards. I'm thrilled to see that it has a total of 4100 pages. I must say, the communication and packaging were top-notch! The speed of delivery was impressive, and the books arrived in pristine condition. No complaints here - just pure joy! For those curious about the series, let me share my excitement - this set is a dream come true, especially since it includes an unpublished anecdote. I'm also happy to see that they carried the sixth volume, which I'd been struggling to find. The quality of these books is exceptional, with beautifully crafted packaging and speedy delivery. The postcards are adorable, adding an extra touch to this wonderful set. To those asking about the language, rest assured - these novels are in a different language, not English. If you're interested in purchasing them, I highly recommend checking out Harumio's FAQ page for information on ordering, shipping, and other details. Overall, my experience with Harumio has been nothing short of fantastic!
