In other words, some malware will download and execute automatically on your computer. One of the first adware I ever came across was a commercial spyware program called AdwareKiller. It installs itself as an innocuous program like Firefox or Internet Explorer and you may not even notice it at first. You are probably fine if you don't have any of the following symptoms. You have an annoying pop-up every time you start your browser. These pop-ups are annoying, but they don't usually slow you down or hijack your computer. You've probably already noticed these pop-ups and blocked them. You have toolbars on your browser. These toolbars are usually 520fdb1ae7
