

William K. Faber, MD, MA, MHCM, who currently serves as Healthcare Director at Navigant, is an experienced physician executive and healthcare consultant specializing in population health management and the formation and optimization of Clinically Integrated Networks. He works collaboratively with providers and key stakeholders to achieve strategic, financial and operational goals, and specializes in assisting healthcare executives with the legal, governance, technological, cultural transformation and leadership challenges of all forms of pay-for-value reimbursement, specifically engaging physicians through governance, the development of clinical programs, workflow and HIT optimization, and the care management infrastructure required to ensure success in payment systems that reward efficiency and quality.

Previously, Dr. Faber was a Principal Consultant at Lumina Health Partners in the greater Chicago area, and prior to that, served as Chief Medical Officer for El Camino Hospital in Los Gatos, California. In his role as CMO at El Camino, he was responsible for patient quality and safety, physician relations and medical staff leadership development. Prior to joining El Camino Hospital, he served as Senior Vice President with General Electric (GE) Healthcare Camden Group in Chicago.

Throughout his medical career, Dr. Faber served in many senior leadership roles including several with Advocate Health Care in Illinois, one of the leading integrated health care delivery networks in the United States and one of the Midwest's largest networks. During his 13 years with the organization, Dr. Faber's served as Medical Director for Credentials, Peer Review and Quality Improvement Education, Regional Medical Director and Senior Medical Director.

Dr. Faber received his medical degree, as well as his master's degree in medical ethics, from Loma Linda University and He holds a master of science in health care management from Harvard School of Public Health and is Board certified in Family Medicine. He completed his residency in Family Medicine at Hinsdale Family Practice in Hinsdale, Illinois. Dr. Faber is a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Practice and a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, as well as several other professional and community organizations.