

ANTI-BRIBERY POLICY

The Director regards ethical dealings as critical to the way Shinecraoft Inventory Services does business and takes sound business practice very seriously. This Anti-Bribery Policy has been set by the Director and all staff are expected to act consistent with its code and spirit when conducting work for the Company. The Director will monitor compliance and will take any breach seriously.

It is the responsibility of each employee to ensure compliance with this Policy within their divisional unit and periodically arrange for all within that unit, agents and contractors with which that business unit has dealings to be reminded of the Policy and notified of any revisions.

It is the responsibility of the Director from time to time to assess the risk of bribery across the Company and to monitor and review the effectiveness of the measures and procedures which have been put in place to prevent bribery occurring.

Shinecraoft Inventory Services believes in carrying out business fairly, honestly and openly and expects all employees, agents etc and to adopt a high standard of business ethics. The Director of Shinecraoft Inventory Services is fully committed to preventing bribery being committed by any employee, person or business who carries out work or performs services on behalf of the Company.

Shinecraoft Inventory Services prohibits: the offering, giving, the solicitation or acceptance of any bribe, whether cash or other inducement to or from any person or company, wherever they are situated and whether they are a public official or body or private person or company by any individual employee, or other person or body acting on the Company's behalf in order to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the Company in a way which is unethical OR in order to gain any personal advantage, pecuniary or otherwise, for the individual or anyone connected with the individual.
