

Vito Carrozzo

Vito offers 30 years of commercial experience working with blue chip organizations in three distinct Global regions – Singapore, UAE and Australia. Proven process management skills in strategic planning, business development, recruitment and organization culture improvement delivered with excellent interpersonal skills.

Vito has been of service to a range of Australia domiciled organizations seeking suitable talent to grow and diversify their customer base as well as mentoring, in a pro-bono capacity, social enterprise startups such as Refugee Talent and indigenous startups funding group First Australians Capital.

From 2007 to 2009, he was based in Dubai and held the role of Director, Talent Optimization within Nakheel, a UAE Government owned property development company with holdings across the Middle East region as well as Asia. In this capacity with Nakheel, he was responsible for the identification, selection, appointment and re-deployment of senior executives to the Nakheel senior management team.

From 1999 to 2007, Vito worked in the executive search field in Australia specializing in the real estate, construction and infrastructure industries.

Prior to that, he spent ten years with the Lendlease Group from 1988 to 1998 working within the financial services division of MLC as well as the shopping centre operations division of Lendlease Retail.

Vito graduated from the University of Technology, Sydney (1988) with a Bachelor of Business majoring in Finance and Economics and holds an Executive MBA from the Australian Graduate School of Management (2001). He has also completed the Enterprise Facilitation workshop from the California based Sirrolli Institute.
