Look, we all want gorgeous eyelashes. And sometimes it's just easier to create them in our favorite Sims 4 than in real life! Among the most important CC you can get for your game are Create-A-Sim outfits, accessories and eyelashes that frame your eyes and play a significant role in your sim's looks. Whether you want a subtle kind of eyelashes or long, juicy, and unrealistically thick variety, CC creators around the world have you covered. This is doubly for those of you running Alpha-looking builds. Since it can be tiring to dig into various TS4 CC sites and dozens of Tumblr blogs, we've done all the work for you! Here's our useful little rating including some of our favorite eyelash enhancement CC packs to meet all your decorating needs. 20. No EA eyelashes Check this CC Before you get into the thick of the issue, there is something we need to take care of. Most eyelash mods make the game refer to new eyelashes, like either glasses or skin details. That's because The Sims 4 doesn't really allow you to customize your eyelashes in CAS, and instead, which makes them part of the default Sim model. This little mod will simply eliminate the default Maxis lashes, leaving your character's eyes free to wear luscious, 3D CC lashes. It's not bad, is it? Check out this CC So for some real CC eyelashes we have a pretty standard but high-quality package of 40 different eyelash styles by the notorious creator CC PralineSims. These eyelashes look natural, cool, and come in three different lengths. The package also includes eight eyeliner/eye shadow versions for each length, available in five different colors to combine with any outfit. While most of the lashes in this package are clearly designed to be feminine-looking Sims, those without any makeup are ideal for Sims men, since men tend to have rather long lashes. Check out this CC Another option for those of you who want to give Sim really natural and subtle eyelashes. They are sure to increase their appeal without attracting too much attention, all S-Club. They come in two different swatches with slightly different lengths and thicknesses to accommodate different types of face. Although it's not as eye-catching as the other options, they'll give your character an extra je ne sais quoi that will improve their appearance. They are also perfect for those of you who have already downloaded some eyeshadow or eyeliner packs, and now want to help them shine. Check out this CC If you liked the previous entry, but are more interested in something a little more flashy, consider these eyelashes also made by S-Club. This juicy CC eyelash pack is considerably more voluminous than previous designs and they come with eyeliner collections made in addition to them perfectly. Unlike many others CC eyelashes packs, they are straight rather than curled up. Giving them a distinctive look (maybe what you're after, maybe, Get this for a sim that needs a little more oomph to make their look attractive and absorbing. Check out this CC As it takes place whenever we talk about the best CC to improve your game, some of the PralineSims creations are worth mentioning, such as these ethereal Lashes. As their illustrative image may suggest, these eyelashes have been made for a refined and brooding Sim that always seems to have their head in the clouds. They would also make amazing eyelashes for a beautiful vampire who attracts prey with their breathtaking beauty and feigned purity. These eyelashes come in ten different versions, each of which is available in a dark and light color. You'll be able to use them on Sims of all ages and genders, too. Check out this CC Also from the extensive PralineSims catalog comes this stylish N07 eyelash package, which is sure to help give your Sims a playful look to match their personality. These angular eyelashes are thick, making them ideal for handling intense make-up and still shines on their own. They have a bit of cat-eye style too, albeit a little rounded, and will probably complement a couple of thick eyebrows perfectly. Or, if you're going for a cat build with a cute cat outfit, they can work beautifully there too! PralineSims offers these eyelashes in ten different colors, so you should have no trouble finding the right one. Check it out CC These incredibly attention-grabbing eyelashes can look ridiculously thick. But it's actually quite the opposite once you get them on your face. Made by the creator of the queen bee, these thick dark eyelashes are nothing but a gimmick. The shadow is on the wall. To be more specific, they have eyeliner in shape to look like intense glam eyelashes without being 3D. They may not be exactly eyelashes, but they look so convincing that I couldn't help but turn them on. Get them for this character who wants to look like a Bratz doll. Check out this CC Another interesting option with the same faux eyelash technique is Razei-kun's BURN lashes. These dark, defined eyelashes are perfect for those of you who love the original Maxis visual style and are not interested in turning your Sims into hyper-realistic virtual people with Alpha CC. They are available in two natural colors and will work on male and female sims, from teen to Elder. Check out this CC If you're running The Sims 4 with Fashion Headquarters to take hyper-detailed photos and the like, consider these headquarters-compatible eyelashes creator Bobur3. They are short, making them look natural, but remain dark and thick enough that they will be noticeable despite their moderate length. With a sharp cat-eye design, they are perfect for flirtatious teens or young adult ladies for night dancing. it's CC Variety Spice Life, and Bobur has enough eyelash packs to spice up his entire CAS repertoire. However, we have room for just a few of their own naturally look like creations in our short ranking. Along with previous ones, you can't go wrong with Dream-Girl's 3D Lashes. This second version of the already popular package includes many different eyelash designs ranging from natural to highly stylized. You can even find some massive, thick eyelashes you usually see only in RuPaul's Drag Race or the romantic shojo manga. Check out this CC I like when different parts of cc work in addition to each other. And when PralineSims offers you a combo dish of eyelashes and eyeliner, you know they will look incredible. This package has bold but not so thick lashes that are relatively short. There are 15 versions in total, including five colors. This is my favorite package to use for white eyelashes as the anime-ish look of the lower lashes feels hard to beat. Check out this CC Made by Leah Lillit, these Hollywood lashes are beautiful and juicy like some others. They are long and attractive, and yet manage to look natural though. They are available in 21 different versions with adjustments ranging from fine settings to major changes. Since they don't usually include lower eyelashes, you'll probably need subtle eyeliner to frame your eyes more reliably. While some may consider the lack of lower lashes in this package a disadvantage, I would say that there is a market for this kind of thing, as it gives your Sims a distinctive look. Check out this CC Among the most popular, well-known and widely recommended eyelash CCs these alpha-looking 3D Lashes creator Magnolia-C. These relatively thin eyelashes have a level of detail and a realistic composition necessary to look great in a close-up picture. So get your poses ready! Unfortunately, they are only for women. But with five variations of length and color ranging from black to white, they should at least cover the needs of your sim girl. Check out this CC Although it's not the most famous creation, Screaming Mustard's Sapphire 3D lashes is definitely one of the most eye-catching options available for The Sims 4. They are surprisingly long. But thin enough to give the characters a natural look too. They are perfect for those who don't have all that in makeup and they will look amazing even without eyeliner at all. They are available in six slightly modified versions that allow you to choose the most ideal option for the composition of your character's face. Each version also comes in black, brown and white shades. Check out this CC Screaming Mustard's most famous 3D Lashes are also among the most widely appreciated ones in society at large. And you'll probably see them in many models for other CCs out there. These Ruby eyelashes are long and intricately detailed. Somehow, Screaming Mustard managed to recreate the exact look Mascara, making them some of the most realistic looking lashes for girly Sim, who is not afraid to get some makeup enhancement. They're Them for close-up shots of your Alpha-look Sims. Check out this CC Maxis Match Sims don't get enough love from the CC community. Luckily for us, the creator of PickyPikachu has an eye on adorable, and will bring us a big CC for a more cartoonish-looking Sims. These cute eyelashes have simple designs that mimic the default Maxis lashes. They are available in two versions: Jade (including four long, stylized lashes) and Norma, which looks like vanilla lashes by default, except that they have lower lash variations. Check out this CC If what you want is one to catch all the lash CC package that will bring you the variety you need to give you lots of Sims different looks, you can't go wrong with Dream-Girl's 3D Lashes. This second version of the already popular package includes many different eyelash designs ranging from natural to highly stylized. You can even find some massive, thick eyelashes you usually see only in RuPaul's Drag Race or the romantic shojo manga. Check out this CC Korean creator MMSIMS brings us these hyper-realistic and subtle kind of eyelashes that look so real, all the other CC variants may look cartoonish in comparison. Available for male and female Sims alike, we have a total of 30 different swatches with every minor variation you can imagine. I recommend them especially for those who work the hyper-detailed adventures of TS4 for photographic purposes. And for those who use fashion headquarters, for that matter. Check out this CC One of the most popular eyelash packs of the last few years should be Plumbobjuce's 3D lashes, available in 25 different versions to meet all needs. These notoriously thick and thick eyelashes are a variation on the first 3D eyelash packs to become famous - Kijiko's 3D eyelashes. One of the best features they share is the lush lash shape. You know the kind we all want every morning in the bathroom mirror of Dang! Get this CC for a sim who likes to be the center of attention and aims to stun everyone that they make eye contact with. Check out this CC As you might guess by now, the first place goes to OG lashes japanese creator Kijiko. Or rather, we are talking about the most updated version of this famous CC package. These lovely, long and curvy lashes are the most versatile option for style conscious TS4 fans who just need beautiful eyelashes for every family member. They are all compatible with the morphine-shaped eyes, making them particularly easy to use. Diversity is not a problem with this CC package, as it includes 20 long and 25 medium length styles. Yes, 45 unique styles in total! You'll also find a few variations of this mod from creator, so be sure to check out the link above. Plus Kijiko offers a ton of TS4 stuff on its website, so feel free to browse around. You never know what you'll find! To find! To find! sims 4 default eyelash replacement
