

Last Live Stream at PPCOC

Tonight we will meet for the last time at the Pasir Panjang church of Christ. The congregation will be renting the Grand Copthorne Hotel in Havelock Road from next Sunday as they hand over the building to the contractors.

We have initially planned to move to a new location on 13th February. At this time of writing, we have yet to receive approval for registration or confirmation of new location.

We now have to move our schedule behind by a few more weeks and pray that we may be registered and move to a new location by the first week of March.

As tonight is our last live stream worship at PPCOC, for the next 3 Sundays, members will join the live stream from their homes on Sunday at 6pm.

These live stream are pre-recorded and will not include the worship segment. Please refer to the song selections on the right for each one to sing each week.

If you have not picked up a hymn book, please let me know and I will get one to you.

Also, let me know if you have not picked up a communion kit.

Please pray along with us for the future of the Household of Faith.

Introduction

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, And a time to die;

A time to plant, And a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, And a time to heal;

A time to break down, And a time to build up;

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
A time for Everything
A time to be born,
A time to plant,
And a time to kill;
And a time to build up;
A time to weep,
And a time to dance;

Introduction

A time to weep, And a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, And a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, And a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, And a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to seek, And a time to lose;

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
A time for Everything
A time to be born,
A time to plant,
And a time to kill;
And a time to build up;
A time to weep,
And a time to dance;

Introduction

A time to keep, And a time to cast away;

A time to tear, And a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, And a time to speak;

A time to love, And a time to hate;

A time for war, And a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
A time for Everything
A time to be born,
A time to plant,
And a time to kill;
And a time to build up;
A time to weep,
And a time to dance;

A time to Gather stones

A time to cast away stones, And a time to gather stones together;

1 Samuel 17:40-51 He took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag... David put his hand in his bag, and took there a stone, and slang it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

A time to gather stones;

A time to Embrace

A time to embrace, And a time to refrain from embracing;

1 Samuel 18:1-3 It happened, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,

A time to Seek

A time to seek, And a time to lose;

Luke 12:29-31
Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things.

But seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
A time to seek,

A time to Keep

A time to keep, And a time to cast away;

1 John 5:3-4

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous.

For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
A time to seek,
A time to keep,

A time to Tear

A time to tear, And a time to sew;

Matthew 9:16-17

No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made.

Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
A time to seek,
A time to keep,
A time to tear,

A time to Speak

A time to keep silence, And a time to speak;

1 Kings 19:11-12 He said, Go forth, and stand on the mountain before Yahweh. Behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake: and after the earthquake a fire; but Yahweh was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
A time to seek,
A time to keep,
A time to tear,
A time to speak;

A time to Love

A time to love, And a time to hate;

1 John 4:20-21
If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?

This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
A time to seek,
A time to keep,
A time to tear,
A time to speak;
A time to love,

A time for Peace

A time for war, And a time for peace.

Philippians 4:8-9 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things.

The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
A time for Everything
A time to be born,
A time to plant,
And a time to kill;
And a time to build up;
A time to weep,
And a time to dance;

Conclusion

You saw me before I was born.
Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed.

Psalm 139:16

Household of Faith, Singapore Now Registered

Last Monday, we were informed by ACRA (Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority) that our application to register as a church has been approved. We are now securing a venue (many times the size of my office at PPCOC) which we can use during the week instead of premises that charge by the hour.

1. We will worship online in February until the papers for the new location are signed and the utilities etc installed.
2. By or before March, we should be able to come together for in-person worship. Watch out for further announcements.

3 Hear exhortation from the link (any time - prerecorded)

Registration Approved!
 Ready for in-person worship by or before March

We call upon all members to prepare to come together, just like we did before the pandemic for in-person worship. There is room for everyone, including visitors and friends.

When we are more settled, we will resume children's Bible class and Care teams. When regulations allow, also potluck.

Introduction

Series of sermons from O.T. Poetry

Last Sunday: the Blessed man – refers to everyone

Tonight: the Priceless Woman – applicable to everyone

Specifically leaning towards the homemaker

Many points – moving rapidly

Introduction

Proverbs 31:10-31 Who can find a worthy woman? For her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband trusts in her. He shall have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, All the days of her life.

She seeks wool and flax, And works eagerly with her hands. She is like the merchant ships. She brings her bread from afar.

Introduction

She rises also while it is yet night, Gives food to her household, And portions for her servant girls.

She considers a field, and buys it. With the fruit of her hands, she plants a vineyard.

She girds her loins with strength, And makes her arms strong.

She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp doesn't go out by night.

Introduction

She lays her hands to the distaff, And her hands hold the spindle.

She opens her arms to the poor; Yes, she extends her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household; For all her household are clothed with scarlet.

She makes for herself carpets of tapestry. Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Introduction

*Her husband is respected in the gates,
When he sits among the elders of the land.*

*She makes linen garments and sells them,
And delivers sashes to the merchant.*

*Strength and dignity are her clothing.
She laughs at the time to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom.
Faithful instruction is on her tongue.*

Introduction

*She looks well to the ways of her household,
And doesn't eat the bread of idleness.*

Her children rise up and call her blessed.

Her husband also praises her: "Many women do noble things, But you excel them all."

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain; But a woman who fears Yahweh, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands! Let her works praise her in the gates!

Job 1:21

Introduction

Series of sermons from O.T. Poetry

Job – one of the earliest books of the Bible

Focus on first chapter

Encourage all to read the entire book

Promise of much blessings

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

Job 1:18-22 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, and, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away. Blessed be the name of Yahweh."

In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Prologue

Job 1:18-22 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, and, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

God allowed the devil to tempt Job

Wave after wave, Satan destroyed Job

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

Prologue

Job 1:8-11 Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face."

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

Prologue

So God allowed the devil to tempt Job

Wave after wave, Satan destroyed Job

Job 1:13-19 "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away...

"The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you...

"The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away."

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

Job's Response

Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshipped.

Must have hit Job hard

Tearing robe – expressing great sorrow

Shave head – an act of mourning

Fell to the group – giving up all rights

Worshipped – acknowledge God is in charge

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

God knows best

His way better - Isaiah 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1

Introduction

Job's Response
Job's Reason

Job's Reply

In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

Easy to sin

Easy to blame God

Easy to do wrong

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.
