Tori May is a 17-year-old, Danish-American singer and songwriter born and raised in Singapore. She currently attends an international secondary school and will graduate in 2027. Tori May has attended Berklee College of Music's 5-week Aspire Summer Program in Boston, USA on a partial scholarship where she took college level courses in music theory, musicianship, songwriting, and jazz improvisation alongside 1-1 training in jazz vocals. In January 2025, Tori May joined the national Voices of Singapore Children's Choir (audition only) led by Dr. Darius Lim. She has been chosen for their Choral Scholars and Choral Conducting Scholars programs where she receives advanced training in choral singing and conducting.

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

Tori May cast on X Factor Denmark 2025

Tori May travelled to Denmark in October 2024 to audition for the judges on the televised singing competition “X Factor Denmark”. She received 3 (out of 3) yeses from the judges and made it to top 12 in the “under 23” category. The show received over 8000 audition applications. It was aired in Denmark from Jan-April 2025.

Tori May wins the 2024 Cristofori's Got Talent Competition!

Tori May won 1st place among the 25 finalists in the Singapore-wide teenage soloist category (across all instruments) for her beautiful rendition of "Colors of the Wind." Watch here

Tori May and classmates receive top marks for their original Blues composition

Grade 9 Music Teacher Tom Anderson commented, "In 8 years of G9 Blues compositions, there has never been such a well-composed and well-performed Blues composition. I could not discern a single academic rationale to award less than the highest mark. Well done, students!" Watch here
