Start your review of university Grammar English: from a Swedish perspective it is very informative and good. Just... grammar is not great to me. It was a really interesting grammar book. I liked the Swedish perspective, it was helpful and educational, and unique for the school book to take our origins into account. Also, I didn't like the way the authors have occasionally pointed out that it's difficult for English learners, since this kind of commentary is easy for the reader to turn into a fortress that will make it even more difficult. The author suppose to help the reader rather than create speed beats in learning p It was a really interesting grammar book. I liked the Swedish perspective, it was helpful and educational, and unique for the school book to take our origins into account. Also, I didn't like the way the authors have occasionally pointed out that it's difficult for English learners, since this kind of commentary is easy for the reader to turn into a fortress that will make it even more difficult. The author, suppose to help the reader, rather than create speed strokes during the training process. I just find this kind of warning so very unnecessary. Also, the book spoiled Book 6 in the Harry Potter series, which is frankly inexcusable for a book nerd like me. ... More a university grammar of english with a swedish perspective pdf download
