

MOUNTAIN OF FAITH

Sermon Notes

Rev. Lennox Zamore, Senior Pastor

Scriptures: Romans 10:17; Hebrews 11:1; Romans 12:2; Matthew 28:18–20

Introduction

I. R_____

- Faith begins with G____ speaking. (Romans 10:17)
- Faith comes when the Word moves from ink on paper or soundwaves in the ear to i_____ in the heart.
- Information only informs the m_____; revelation informs the h_____. Therefore, faith is a response to r_____ not i_____.

A. Revelation Originates with G____d

- We are commanded to preach truth, but our preaching of truth does not automatically result in faith. Only the H_____ S_____ of God can generate faith.

B. Revelation Operates through God's W_____

- As the Word is read, heard, and meditated upon, the Holy Spirit brings i_____, unveiling truth beyond n_____ understanding.
- Revelation is activated through the Word of God because God not only r_____ truth through words; He also c_____ r_____ through words.
- God's Word is not merely descriptive; it is c_____ and a_____, carrying the power to bring into being what did not previously exist.

C. Revelation Orders R_____

- Revelation o_____ reality because what God reveals establishes what is t____, a_____, and o_____ in creation and in human life.
- When God reveals truth, confusion gives way to c_____, and d_____ yields to alignment.
- Revelation does not merely inform reality—it g_____ it, aligning hearts, systems, and cultures with the d_____ d_____ of the Kingdom of God.

II. R_____

- Saving faith, while essential, is not the same as s_____ itself; it can be r_____ or r_____.
- Salvation is the result of a response that includes the whole b_____.

A. Reception of the M_____: This is m_____ a_____ or c_____ that the revelation is truth. This takes place in the mind.

B. Reception of the H_____: This is r_____ or b_____ of revelation in the heart that the truth is able to do what God declares.

C. Reception of the Body: For faith to move anything in the physical world, there must be a p_____ act of obedience that a_____ and a_____ it.

1. Salvation requires both belief in the heart and c_____ with the mouth.

2. Blessings are not delivered until there is o_____ to revelation.
3. Miracles occur when people not only believe the Word of Jesus, but act on it.
4. Breakthrough is such a concentration of spiritual resistance that it may require a s_____ a_____ of o_____.

III. R_____

A. Realignment R_____ Self Rule

- Realignment removes self from the throne because true alignment with God's Kingdom requires a transfer of authority from s____-r_____ to Christ's L_____.
- To deny self is to dethrone self—to relinquish the right to define t_____, d_____, and p_____.
- Realignment means surrendering a_____ and a_____ and submitting every thought, desire, and decision to Christ's authority, bringing life under d_____ o_____.

B. Realignment R_____ the Mind

- Realignment is about the w_____ of God.
- Once the heart is transformed through salvation, the next step is to align the believer with the w_____ of God.
- Alignment does not begin with e_____ compliance to rituals but with i_____ transformation, where the renewed mind becomes the gateway through which K_____ l_____ is expressed.

C. Realignment R_____ Priorities and Loyalties

- Faith realigns how we use t_____, r_____, r_____, and a_____.
- God's Kingdom moves from being an a____-__ to being the o_____ c_____ of one's life.

D. Realignment R_____ Culture

- Once faith has restored you, the same faith has the power to realign every s_____ of i_____ under your authority.

IV. R_____

God has called us to r_____ culture not to remain confined from culture.

To the degree the Church withdraws from public witness, worldview formation, and cultural engagement, the Mountain of Faith is ruled by a_____ b_____ s_____ such as humanism, relativism, syncretism, or politicized religion rather than by Kingdom truth.

- When the Church confines faith to institutional space, it f_____ cultural rule while retaining r_____ activity.
