Archive Description Unrar 3.00 - converts RAR/CBR archives - includes recursiveness search 1.00 - optional line numbering support 0.01 - supports.chm,.idx and.pdb index files - added the ability to insert or append into directories Rar.FFT 1.00 - added an excellent new compressor using the fast Fourier transform (FFT). It is more than twice as fast as any other compressors on the market and also has an extremely small memory footprint.I have been reading some really wonderful blogs lately and they have all been talking about setting up a work space or a bedroom office. I don't know why, but I thought I should give it a try. So far, it's okay. I think I will keep it for a while to see if it becomes a habit. Today I am talking about the clothes I was wearing this week. I wore a black skirt and a cream top. My top is from Gianduja and the skirt I wore with it is from UO. I love both of these brand for their clothes. I like to watch some documentaries. I have recently started watching the Word on Dogs show which is a series of documentaries about different breeds of dog. Each episode is about a new breed of dog. Some of the ones I have watched so far are About Poodles, Keeshonds, Basset Hounds, Yorkshire Terriers, Boxers and Cockers. I am sure there are more but the ones I have watched are great. They are extremely informative and I highly recommend this show. Well, it is the end of the week again. I am exhausted. To start off my week, I started in the morning with my workout at the gym. It went really well. I did two circuits and a warm up. I was feeling good. Tonight was the new store opening. I met with my friends to check it out. It's called Zara and it's owned by Zara Scholl and it is really fun. I didn't buy anything because I have been wearing the stuff I got from them a couple of times already. We made a short trip to the Chinese restaurant on Staten Island to get a bowl of Chicken and Dumplings. It was amazing. I enjoyed it. Last week I mentioned about going to the library to look for some movies. I did find some movies and I made some notes about them. It's weird but I like 520fdb1ae7
