Apprentice Group

Every two weeks the Apprentice Group meets to support each other in the life of our faith. We do this by working through a book together that has an emphasis on spiritual exercises which we aim to practice and discuss. We meet in the Chapel on Sunday mornings at 8.45 for an hour, followed by coffee across the road.

Every time we are about to start a new book we open up the group for new people to join us. We'll start working through Richard Rohr's "Just this" on September 14th – if you're interested please talk to Jo Wroe or Pete Bone petebone@mac.com.

Community day out to Hunstanton - 28th August. Our community groups are looking forward to a day trip to the seaside.

- Bookings and payments can be made with the office or directly with Emma: do book now!
- Despite rising costs we want to make sure that cost is not prohibitive to people joining us, as for many people this could be the only way they can get to the seaside this summer. Can you help by donating towards the trip? A £10 donation would allow us to offer a free place to someone that needed it, or a larger amount would help us cover the outstanding costs of the coach hire.

Public Living Room: Thursday 14th August, 11am-2pm

What's a public living room? What it says on the tin - a free, friendly space to spend time in, open to all. No agenda, no fixing, just being with one another. We will be hosting one in our front garden on Thursday 14th. All welcome to turn up and spend time together.

Sundays - Want to make a difference to our community? We would love you to step forward to join our volunteers on the Sunday Big Rota. You will be given full training by the our fantastic team of volunteers and Wardens. Please say hello on the day to one of the volunteers or email office@stpaulscambridge.org.uk.

Ely Pride - St Andrew's Church, Soham, organised by Melissa Murfet, are inviting people to join them in solidarity at their stall at Ely Pride this coming Saturday, 9th August. They will be in the Community tent offering bracelet making and facepainting, wearing the 'Christians at Pride' t-shirts <https://www.christiansatpride.com/t-shirts>. Ely Pride will take place at Amherst Field, Ely and details can be found at the website here: <https://www.prideinely.co.uk/event/ely-pride-2025/>. Also organised by Melissa, there will be a talk and discussion at St Andrew's, Soham called 'Speaking Love' on the power of inclusive language in the church on Tues 16th September at 7.30pm. There will be a livestream link made available which we will share nearer the time.

Do you have a spare King James Bible? One of our homeless neighbours has asked for one. He doesn't have a safe place to keep it so it would stay at St Paul's for him and others to access when the church is open.
