

SILA INTERNATIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

คริสตจักรศิลาสากลแบ็บติสต์

Edition: December 2024

LOVE GOD, LOVE THE CHURCH AND LOVE OTHERS.

Christmas Outreach

We proclaimed that Jesus has come to save us all from sins.

The children's play told us the importance of Jesus' birth.

Adults registered to get numbers for winning prizes.

Visitors enjoyed delicious food in a friendly atmosphere.

They could get these free clothes as many as they wanted.

More than 200 people came to our Christmas celebration.

The regional Baptist leader shared about Jesus' salvation.

More than 50 children got stockings of gifts.

All adults got one gift, then waited for the grand prize.

All children had a chance to get bigger prizes, too.

Earn (woman) won the grand prize, an electric scooter.

At the end, every attendee received a free blanket.

Christmas Day

Giving gifts to 47 students at a school nearby on Dec. 25th.

Half of these students come to our church on Sunday.

Baptisms

Rifle was the first Baptism at our new church location.

Earn was saved during the Christmas Outreach.

Waen was baptized on the last Sunday of the year.

Many children witnessed and learned about the baptism.

Year of Blessings

28 members joined the Christmas party on Sat. Dec. 28th.

We had 60 people on the last Sunday of 2024.

We had 33 children alone on December 29th.

We need bigger room to accommodate more members.

Prayer Requests:

1. Raise money to finish property renovations.
2. Raise money to build an auditorium.
3. Reach many with our Christmas outreach.
4. For Khon Kaen to be receptive to the Gospel.

From the Pastor:

December was a busy and exciting month at SIBC. We have seen growing attendance and many new visitors eager to hear about God. Our Christmas outreach was a tremendous blessing, with over 200 attendees hearing the Gospel from Pastor Pratchaya, the head of the Thailand Baptist Association for Isaan. We shared food, gifts, and the love of Christ with our neighbors, and the feedback has been overwhelming. Many are now interested in learning more about God – please pray as we follow up and build connections.

On Christmas morning, Cody, Daeng, and I visited a nearby school and shared leftover stuffed animals and stockings with about 50 children and teachers. Many of these children have started coming to church, and it was a joy to see their excitement and remind them of God's love.

While we are encouraged by what God is doing, there is still much to be done. Our church building needs significant work, but progress depends on available funds. We are humbly asking you to pray about joining our monthly support team. Your partnership can help us continue sharing the Gospel, discipling new believers, and reaching more people.

If you, your church, or a Sunday school class would like to support us in 2025, please reach out. Every contribution makes a difference in helping us fulfill this calling.

Pray with us for the months ahead – that many will accept Christ, grow in faith, and dedicate their lives to Him. We are deeply grateful for your prayers and support.

Your servant in Christ,
Curt Mathis
