A note from the Pastor:

September was an incredibly busy month for us at SIBC. We were blessed to welcome many visitors regularly, and the church continues to grow. Alongside my school responsibilities, which included completing the first semester, I was focused on preparing and moving into our new church building. There was a significant amount of construction that needed to be completed, but with God's grace, we managed to finish enough to move in before our deadline - a true blessing. Our first service in the new location saw almost 50 attendees!

I am deeply grateful to all those who lent a helping hand, whether by removing items from the walls, loading the truck, or setting up the new space. Your efforts made the transition possible, and we couldn't have done it without your support.

Though we are now in the new building, the work is far from over. I kindly ask for your continued prayers as we work to complete the remaining tasks and beautify the property. We are also seeking additional funds to cover some unexpected expenses. While the money we raised was allocated for repairing the roof and setting up the worship center, there is still much to be done. Your financial support and prayers are crucial as we continue this journey.

God is doing wonderful things here, and we are truly grateful for your unwavering support.

Your servant in Christ,
Curt Mathis
