Viet Hoa: jilinz1, hako-chan. Category: Detective, Mystery, Emotional. Computer System: PC 1.04G Unlike the usual genre of the novel, Kara no Shoujo turns the detective element into a part of the game, introducing a system Detective that helps players directly perform the investigative work of the character. Like its predecessor Cartagra, the game takes place in Japan in the 1950s, when traditional customs were intertwined with Western trends, creating special settings. At this time, there were also objects such as cars, trains ... but the women still wore the yukata at home, and scattered somewhere in the city were buildings of European time. The death toll is constantly rising... Can Reidzy find the truth behind this chain of murders? Can the mystery of Toko unravel? It's all thanks to judgment and proper procedure... Reader :3 Introducing the character of 時坂 玲 (Tokisaka Reidzi) Obviously this is not the main type of idiot with a huge harem in countless other erogues. Reigi calmly analyzes the problem and finds clues behind everything, even when relatives are hurt. After the death of his fiancée, he quit his job at the police station and worked death at home. Thanks to this time he had the opportunity to read and collect many books on history, satisfying his childhood passion. That's why he took a job as a history teacher during the school investigation. The only weakness of this guy is a slightly cowardly girl 時坂 紫 (Tokisaka Yukari) sister Reiji, always calm and quick-thinking. Much younger than her brother, she's the one who manages everything in the perfect family model, albeit a little weird - she likes to raise worms, sometimes even deeply, as a dish. 朽木冬子 (Kuchiky Toko) Mysterious girl asks Radi to find out her true nature. He's an artist, he looks cute, but he talks like a boy. Her health is not very good, often have to lie in the infirmary. He is Toko's second best friend in the game. Members of the art club, homing draws and walk the moon at night. 水原 透子 (Mizuhara Toko) is Toko's best friend (above). Often follows Toko and sees her so apart from her. It's easy to envy Reidzy, but there's also sadness to hide in his heart. He's a member of an art club. 四十宮 綴子 (Yosomiya Tsuzuriko) Reidzi often calls her Dojiko because her name is too long and difficult to read. I've always wanted to be a writer. Bright but alive at school. Yukari's best friend though the two have a 180-degree opposite personality. He's a member of an art club. シ 島織姫 (Tsukishima O Memorial Service) President of the Student Council. From a young age she was a rich lady, so she was very arrogant. For some reason, Reidzy was very cold. 葉シ 杏子 (Hazuki Kyoko) is the owner of the lunar world (シ世界), where he frequents Reizi, and is his best childhood friend. She took over the cafe after her husband died a few years ago while enjoying conversations with Radizi and Kyozo. Perhaps because of the same plight, the loss of the most beloved with The Reidzys should have a special sympathy for the guy. 雨宮初音 (Amemya Hatsune) Service personnel in the World of the Moon. Shugo (chief in Cartagre) taught Shugo while working in a brothel (not as a prostitute, you perverts!) so much respect for him. Natural talent specializing in cooking... Die 夏目さ子 (Natsume) One of the quirky characters in the game. However, it is very serious at work. She is an autopsy doctor so become your most useful subject of information. I know how to run a Reidzy. It is also Shugo's sister (although she does not like others, calling her by name) 朱崎寧々 (Akazaki Nene) as a teacher (?) in the infirmary. They have all the information about the health of everyone in the school. Another mysterious character in the game. マリテ (Maris Stella) Despite this, she is half-blooded, so she has half the blood of indigenous people. Usually very little is said, but it is the character with the most important information. Stella works at the city's art museum. 魚住 夾三 (Ouozumi Kyozo) Detective working in the police department. His tall figure and scary face are actually more suited to law enforcement than Reigi, but in fact he loses his head, so he often asks Reiji for help. This man is an old friend of Reiji's, but he doesn't know about their relationship as a vengeful or friend. 高城 秋五 (Takashiro Shugo) Another friend of Reiji's. The main character in Karatagra. Because they are private detectives, they often exchange and assist each other in the investigation.
