Receiving Critical Reception Film received very positive reviews from critics. Taran Adarsh of Bollywood Hungama gave the film 4 stars out of 5 saying: Overall, Love Aaj Kal for and romantic at heart. Sure, it's not perfect, but stunning performances, melodic music and stirring emotional moments more than make up for hiccups. Nihat Kazmi of the Times of India gave the film four stars on a scale of 5, concluding that Go see it for its GenNow and its ekdum (sic) modern appeal. Sonia Chopra of Sify gave the film 3.5 stars out of 5, commenting that with music and characters that you like, Imtiaz Ali, brings out one of the most romantic films in recent times. This is a love story aam junta, with a delicious modern edge. Go get the filling. Indian Express's Shubhra Gupta gave the film three stars on a scale of 5, but noted that it's hard not to warm up to a movie that is inherently likeable. I just wish I loved it more. Anirudda Guha of DNA India gave the film 3 stars out of 5, writing that While Love Aaj Kal isn't quite the movie you'd expect it to be, it doesn't leave you feeling frustrated either. Watch it without much expectation and you'll come back smiling. And if you wanted to ask someone for a while, this movie is the perfect icebreaker. Raja Sen, from Rediff, gave the film 2.5 stars on a scale of 5, saying: Aaj Kal's love is harmless, you can watch a movie - sad because it could be really special. He has his moments in the first half, and in the second - excessive melodramatic resistance. Rajiv Masand of CNN-IBN gave the film 2 stars out of 5, pointing out that the film, after all, ordinary material, can be watched, but never memorable, as the previous efforts of the director, far superior to Socha On Ta and Jab We Met. I go with two out of five and average rating for love Aaj Kal. It's like that plump mango you bite only to discover that it's not yet ripe. Watch it, however, for sharp dialogue and some clever humor. The box office of Love Aaj Kal for the first week was ₹428.7 million U.S. dollars. In the second week, ₹ $164 million ($2.3 million). Love Aaj Kahl in India ₹ 669 million pounds ($9.4 million). It was declared a super hit by Box Office India, grossing ₹ 890 million pounds ($12 million). The film grossed 1.2 billion (₹1.20 billion) worldwide and was one of the highest-grossing films of the year.
