

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Words for calmed

In addition to emotional or mental disorders. The definition drawn up is calm. Control yourself; calm and self-obsessed with a lack of agitation or excitement; peace of mind; peace without worries or anxiety; Disorders. Calm; silent; peace of calm is defined as soothing or forgiveness. The separated definition is separate or unrelated, or not emotionally involved. Calmly conscious, composed, and dignified in nature or manner. (Calculated) The product is calm. Indifferent and devoid of interest; Aloof. Not easily upset or excited; mild or complacent. Not excited emotionally; Calm; Marked with calm self-control: the state or quality is placid. Not easy flustered; Calm but different card games that can be played by one person. Called Solitaire USA. (card game). Not feeling pain; cannot suffer; insensitive silence is the complete absence of sound, whether not to speak or not to speak on a specific subject. The levelheaded definition is calm and clever. The definition of the patient awaits calmly, but long need. Having component elements pleasantly or properly connected. do not stand assuasive alternate spelling tranquilize. Calm and insurmountable, especially under pressure. Not having your feelings stirred by definition listless is something that lacks energy or vitality and does not extend physical effort. (Non-standard) I'm not worried. Very sure of something; positive dependence on yourself; trust in their powers or decision. without nerves in your body said, especially individuals alternative spelling calm. Unterfering or excited custom (Calculation Theory) Alternative spelling order. (New One) Very pleasant, attractive, or pleasant in a pleasant way; smooth: not moving or moving fast; at low speed: restraining is defined as apprehending or controlling. The definition of civil concept means something that concerns citizens or good manners and politeness. Calm or calm state of mind; self-government. Make or characteristic not sound or weak sound: Characterized by extreme emotions, especially anger: Characterized by moderate temperature, air, or climate; neither hot nor cold. Contrary to radical or extreme attitudes or measures, especially in politics or religion. No voltage or voltage. Not influenced by strong feelings or emotions; unbiased: this must not be disturbed, disturbed or agitated; the insurmountable definition of inconspicuous is not easily flustered. How is the fit philosopher not disturbed or distracted. with ice in his veins said especially persons peacefully; pacific, its or its vice, or near it. (Informal) A fool; slightly distraught or distraught; Eccentric. From or related to people who live in the country: Make something or something calm; soothe or calm down. Calm and composed; stable disposition. ataxia (literary, Greek philosophy) Pleasure that comes when the mind is at rest. Politics is against a rival nation or bloc, characterised by greater diplomatic, commercial and cultural contact and a desire to ease tensions, as in negotiations or negotiations. The status is placid; peace of the world. Produce (prints) as a computer, photocomposition, etc. unsimply (About illness or pain) Not serious or dangerous. (Obs.) The excitation of, how, or produce humorous sputum is defined as stirring emotions, actions or strong reactions. Reserved and remote; either physically or emotionally far away (Incomparable, idiomatic) Dead. Having or making no movement. without a storm without storm or stormy weather. Halcyon describes an idealized, idyllic or peaceful time. Of, related to, whether there are literary or other works of art that depict or resemble rural life, usually in an idealized way. Having low intensity; restrained as style or quality; Small. Quite calm range, like a storm. The quality or condition is calm; peace of mind; lack of mental stress or anxiety. To facilitate anger or agitation (person or mind, for example). (New Year's) Being in a state of higher energy. Shake; impaired; agitated sense of dignity or state of inactivity, relaxation or sleep: Control of the expression of feelings; restriction: anodyne anodyne method associated with pain relief. Apathetic definition is someone who is not interested or does not show any feeling or emotion. calm, relaxing or soothing properties; Sedative. deadly or associated with fatalism Requires serious thought; important; difficult to understand; obscure hesychastic (outdated) soothing or soothing can withstand; not subject to ineasing or concern; not interested, apathetic. Without meaning or reason; stupid; stupid tagged blithe unconcern; without hindrance. Showing lack of interest or spirit; some are listed; nepenthean Casually unconcerned or indifferent. oasitic or associated with an oasis (Mainly in the USA) that placates; Calm. That placates; Calm. pococurante apathetic, indifferent or unfroze Definition quiescent is something or something in a period of peace or inactivity. The drug, which has a sedative or soothing effect, is often prescribed to reduce anxiety or promote relaxation. Always fixed in the same place; stationary Seemingly indifferent or unaffected by pleasure or pain; impassive: The definition of a stolid is a person who is unfulfilled and does not tend to display many emotions or sensitivity. Conquered; excessive; crushed; humble; Easy. Not excited (physically or emotionally) assuaging action; Backlog. Freedom from passion; un disturbed state; Apathy. equability – a state in which it can be ejected; Uniformity. is defined as calm and retain your emotions, especially in bad situations. A refrain from enforcing something (like debt, law, or duty) that is payable. The state is an impassive imperturbation freedom from excitement; peace of mind; peace blithe lack of concern; not be corrected. Lethargy or lack of energy; Fatigue. Status or quality of non-binge passivity Passive state or quality; esp., inaction, inertia, humility, etc. pococurantism neblankness, indifference. The status is silent; rest; Peace of Peace Peace; free from worries or worries of coolness and composure, especially trying in circumstances. sedation Sedative action, especially when using sedatives. Example or example of solemn conduct; ordinance or ceremony is performed with respect. The quality or condition is calm; Serenity. To reduce intensity; Cut or Forgive: Reduce the definition is to make something easier to deal with or endure. Soothe or remain silent, esp. giving in to the requirements to meet or soothe (hunger or thirst, for example). To keep motionless due to lack of wind: Use magical charm; enslave, control or summoned by warning or supernatural influence. (Inactive, often with or against) Collect payments. To gain (for, good will, etc.) friendly acts of comfort (something) during grief, frustration, etc. soften to interrupt to interrupt, drive away, or cause to disappear. Give respite (something). Constrained or moderate method: Build or design a structure whose main function is to create a smooth contour or reduce air resistance or water resistance. (Obs.) Raise to social status gentleman stop making noise; be either silent or remain silent in order to ease the burden; make less painful; comfort To stop being angry; to calm down; pacify; mollify To acquire or regain goodwill or benefit. calm down: reconcile is defined as making two people friendly again so that someone makes a decision or action, or reconcile the data in the two accounts. Store (liquid) near boiling point or slightly below. To reduce tension; relax; loosen the alternate tranquilize spelling, unencumbered by the simple past time and past participant unconfuse, characteristic, or affected by storms wild and stormy, as if the angry definition of passionate is having or showing strong feelings, strong emotions or strong libido. Exposed to wind and sea; does not fit. Temporarily or apparently fascinated by violent sensations, emotions or ideas: Rushing with impetuosity; moves through violence. May react to stimuli. Hostile and violent, especially because of nature or temperament; Cruel: The definition of turbulence is something characterized by chaos, confusion, disorder or conflict. Rush, panic or wild activity. The definition of agitation means that move something decisively or brutal process. The disturbing or disturbed (uncountable) state of an excitable storminess (antonym) (innumerable) Condition or quality is a tumultuous feeling of injury, mistreatment, opposition, etc., and usually shows itself the desire to fight back to the alleged cause of this feeling of erratic or unstable eddying motion fluid. Avoiding excessive turbulence around moving objects (e.g. planes) that can make their motion ineffective and difficult to control is a key factor in aerodynamic design. A person or thing causing intense fear make (someone) worried or anxiety Ruffle defined as wrinkles, or annoying or anxious. Agitate's definition is to move around a strong or violent movement. Cause (someone) to be active, attentive, or excited: Stir. Draw (mind, attention, etc.) far in the other direction; divert outrage is defined as a deep insult to someone, or to commit a violent act against someone. Cause someone to feel impatient or angry; Annoying: To picking off, push, touch, etc. repeatedly nervous or resolutely controls evil spirits. The status is peaceful. No sound; silence or hush. The name given to the crown prince or similar honorable. Also used with down: disperse (figuratively) to calm down; Mitigate. Location in fixed or permanent condition; stable, stable or stable; to determine the to determine the especially, set in life; set up business, home, or so on. Also used with down: to calm down to ease anger or agitation. Make pleasant or gentle; mollify. (Inactive) Become Soft or Softer (--- Now Rare) To Facilitate; easily (unsurmounted) Become less excited, intense, or angry. To reduce temperature, activity or mood. (Idiomatic, slang, slightly dated) Hang; spend time with another person or group. Also chill. To create a well-established lifestyle, and especially marry. (Idiomatic) calm, relax, take time (not skipping) to become calm. unwondering current participant unwonder. Consistent and reliable in their behavior or performance unastonished untrémulated by the unsurprising windiness does not affect personal interests or selfish motives; impartial; unbiased lack of intellectual curiosity or natural curiosity; Uninterested. unimpressed Don't take sides of conflict like war; Unmatched. Show friendliness or prestige. nepenthe The drug mentioned in Odyssey as a remedy for grief. sedatives Alternative forms of sedatives. (Inactive, law) To enter the apartment building without permission after the owner died and before the heir took over. [First approved around 1350-1470] Even number in sequence. pour oil on restless water calm air wind moving less than 1 0 beaufort on the scale Find another word calmly. On this page you can discover 274 synonyms, antonyms, idiomatic expressions and related calm words, such as: calm, composed, collected, calm, calm, calm, calm, calm, soothing, detached, soothing and calm. Peace.