(Search) Days of CREATION Telling how God created the world, Genesis describes what happened on a daily. It was Mandy's inspiration for this 8-page Days of Coloring Creation. These original drawings can be freely printed and used as you like in your church, home or school. They provide a useful exercise for any Sunday School lesson about how God created all things. BOOKS OF THE BIBLE Mandy has created an original coloring book for each Book of the Bible. Click here for OLD TESTAMENT Click here for a new TESTAMENT that makes one major 66 page coloring book - each sheet has a scripture quote and visual themes to help children better understand specific Bible books. FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT Galatians 5:22-23 describes the characteristic qualities that the Holy Spirit produces in the life of every believer. In this free 11-page coloring, Mandy illustrates modern examples of where this fruit can make a difference. Each picture in this series is accompanied by a complete lesson plan, but coloring books are excellent educational resources in their own right. BIBLE ALPHABET For this series, we asked readers to assign a theme for each letter in the alphabet. The result was this 26-page coloring book. This resource is especially useful for young children by ingesting their writings for the first time, but the biblical themes for each letter provide a solid foundation for the education of any age group of children. GOSPEL COLORING BOOK We wanted to translate the themes of Jesus eating the king from the Bible into a visual learning tool for children. The result was this 5-page book-coloring of the gospel. This helps children understand why they need Jesus and how to follow him. This booklet is useful for introducing children to Jesus. It can also be a reminder to older children who grow up in their faith. LORD PRAYER This coloring series is based on Matthew 6:9-13, where Jesus instructs his followers how to pray. Each illustration in this 5-page booklet relates the themes of prayer to the modern context. It is the perfect companion for our lesson plans at the exemplary prayer of Jesus. As children work through these publications, they will better understand how God wants them to pray. Kids will love our amazing coloring books about the days of creation. Any of these coloring pages of creation would be ideal for Sunday School or Children's Church. Days of Creation Coloring Pages Let there be light (Creating day one) - This sheet-coloring features events from Genesis 1:3 where God says: Let there be light. The image shows the sun and the stars that emit this light on the first day of creation. It was the first day of the biblical history of creation. God has made heaven and sea (Day of Creation 2) - This coloring sheet depicts events from Genesis 1:6-8, where God separates water and calls the sky. This passage is often difficult to conceptualize, but Mandy's illustration shows layers of water forced apart as God makes room for heaven. God Made the Earth (Day of Creation 3) - In this painting, the artist showed the events of Genesis 1:9-10, where God brings dry earth from the sea. The image shows several mountain peaks emerging from the ocean. It was the third day of creation. Let the earth produce (Day of Creation Three) - This coloring continues the event from the third day of creation. It is based on Genesis 1:11-13. In the illustration there are plants, trees and grass that overlook the ocean scene. The words read: Let the earth produce. God made the sun, the Moon and the Stars (Day of Creation 4) - Mandy drew inspiration for this line of art paintings from Genesis 1:14-19. The painting has four panels, each of which has a different location of the Sun, Moon and stars. The words on the page read: Signs, seasons, days, years. As a bonus, you can also download our coloring book based on Psalm 19:1: Heaven proclaim the glory of God. God made animals, fish and birds (Creating Days Five and Six) - These next two coloring sheets illustrate the events in Genesis 1:20-25. There are two different options for you to download and print. This can be a coloring book in children as you teach about God's creative activities in creating animals. Adam and Eve in the Garden (Day of Creation Six) - This printed coloring book shows people what God did holding hands in the garden setting. Children will love the coloring mountains, flowers and other items surrounding the couple. This painting is an illustration of Genesis 1:26-31. It was very good (Creation Day seven) - This final picture has the words very well and shows the finished work. It is based on Genesis 1:30 - 2:2, where God rested from his work on the seventh day. Adam and Eve show, relaxing in the garden, what God did for them to enjoy in a very good beginning. We have also added a new Coloring page of Creation with Adam and Eva finished work celebrated on the 7th day, you could like another six free coloring pages about Genesis from In the Bible? You can also enjoy our other educational resources about the biblical history of creation for children.
