It contains a full description of how to complete the game. In addition, you'll learn what to do to achieve complete synchronization in all tasks. In the Side Quests section, you'll find all the additional tasks (Romulus Lair, Leonardo's quests, and Christina's hidden memories). In addition, much of this guide is about all the additional items that can be found in the game world (flags, glyphs and feathers marked on the respective cards). In some chapters you will be able to learn about merchant quests, some logical games and many other things. Display 1-30 Start your review of Assassin's Creed Brotherhood: A Full Official Guide That was only after I finished the game when I read the game guide. Since I tend to be thorough, (When collecting all the feathers and flags just to get a certain outfit) Gosh, I'm going to die trying all the problems of the guild. While it was fun exploring and figuring things out on my own, it's nice to know what I missed. I seriously hate the time limit running/chasing mission/problem just to get fully synchronized. It's annoying to fuck out of me.
