INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK & INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS PORTAL

TITLE: INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK: WHY STUDY ABROAD?

PRESENTER: ANTONY ADAMS WITH PHIL GARNER

Antony Adams, a qualified careers adviser and founder of IEW has worked in the careers education space for 8 years post qualification. He has a breadth of experience in careers education, information, advice and guidance. He has been organising events for 5 years and loves nothing more than organising a tour - his record is 18 events in 6 days and a trip around the EU visiting 10 cities in 12 days! He lives and breathes IEW. Antony fundamentally believes students should look overseas for their education.

Founder Antony Adams shares his insights on his journey across the world visiting universities around the world on #aroundtheworldin80universities. Phil Garner joins him to talk about the reasons why students might look overseas for their education.

CARLETON UNIVERSITY AND BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY

TITLE: STUDY IN CANADA

PRESENTER: KATE HALLIDAY AND ANNA PLUGATYR

Anna Plugatyr and Kate Halliday are representatives of Canadian Universities and have worked extensively in the UK proactively promoting Canada as a study destination.

UK students are increasingly looking abroad, and Canada represents a tremendous opportunity to advance their career opportunities. Students will benefit from high quality education and return home with a globally-recognized degree. Tuition is affordable when compared among top destinations abroad. Many international students gain valuable experience by working while studying in Canada, as well as working after graduation.

UES ( UNIVERSITY ENTRANCE SKILLS)

TITLE: DIRECTOR AND FOUNDER, UES

PRESENTER: DR JASON SMITH

Jason Smith is well known as an expert in US college applications. He founded UES with the goal of setting the gold standard in test preparation and US application support. He has a First Class degree with Honours and a PhD in Applied Mathematics, has worked in both the private and public sector as a nuclear scientist, competed internationally in Taekwondo, and has visited much of the known world. Jason's passion to help students achieve their educational potential is the cornerstone of the philosophy of UES.

Jason will cover all the basics of applying to the USA for university: Why should students apply? How good are US colleges? What's involved in an application? What's it like at university in America? He will also cover the practical aspects including the application timeline, choosing colleges, application essays, teacher recommendations and school reports, funding options, and of course the standardised tests (SAT, ACT and Subject Tests).

IED MILANO

TITLE: INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS MANAGER

PRESENTER: SILVIA GHEZZI

Silvia Ghezzi, International Operations Manager, has been working in the field of Creative Education for over 9 years. Thanks to her good knowledge of the field and her interest in the international development of the IED group she has been holding presentations and lectures around the world in Universities and High Schools.

She's been frequently invited by international schools to meet, counsel and select students for Undergraduate and Master Courses. She currently manages the team of IED area managers and she's in charge of international commercial activities in foreign countries.

"Every place has its own history, a soul, a strong identity featuring its own language, habits, traditions. This kind of spirit is the starting and arrival point of all of each creative and educational thought. This strong bond connecting every IED seat with the relevant cultural, economics and managerial environment generates a virtuous circle of influences. Thanks to the participation to events, projects, meetings, catwalks and workshops, each student meets the real protagonists of a specific territory and strengthens the city experience. Studying and living in an international environment is a strategic choice, a first move to become, at the same time, excellent professionals and citizens of the world.
