that can then be passed on to musicians who interpret notes for musical performance. Today, making your own notes easier than ever. With notation software such as finale, or free web service Noteflight, everyone can turn their musical ideas into professional music sheets. Use Noteflight to get started (see Resources). Noteflight is a free music note service that lets you write, print, and even save notes as music files to play. Noteflight has a clean, easy-to-use interface that allows even a beginner to create a song in notes. Since Noteflight allows you to listen to what you've written, you can experiment with different notes until you create something that sounds good, even if you're not familiar with the music. Create a Noteflight account and log in to start creating your own note. You can start writing your song immediately. At the top of the page on the toolbar, click the New Account button to create a blank sheet note document. Choose whether you want your note to be private or collaborative. Noteflight presents you with a clean music sheet in Key C with 4/4 signature time. Click the Name Change button at the top of the music sheet and enter the title of your song, then click Edit Composer and give your name. Make any changes required for your key signature or signature time on the Score menu either with Change The Signature Time or Change key signature command. Add notes and rests on your notes by clicking on the empty music staff. A note appears and you can drag and click where you want the note to appear. You can also use a floating palette to select different note durations. When you insert notes, Noteflight automatically re-formulates the notes to save the right number of strokes on the bar. To listen to what you've written at any given moment, go to the Play menu and choose the playback option you want. Print the notes when you're done composing your song. The result will be a professional score of your song composition. You can also use Noteflight to make an audio file of your composition. Noteflight allows you to assign the actual sounds of the instrument to the respective parts. Go to file and select Export to save the finished note as an MP3 or a file of a shuffle. This allows you to take an example of a record for Group. This site is not available in your country With the popularity of rustic themed weddings and DIY savvy brides, paper flowers are a huge trend in the wedding business. More and more I see brides with bouquets of out Flowers. I wanted to try my hand at a unique homemade paper bouquet that will please any DIY bride. Why not have the time to make this bouquet? It's cheap: I'll probably make this whole bunch for less than $1.00. Average bouquets of flowers go for about $30-$80 per piece! It's easy to make: once you get the hang of making flowers it takes a couple of hours to make a full bouquet depending on how many flowers you want in it. If you have small homes, coming up with activities to keep them busy can sometimes be challenging. There are a few games though that your kids can play with each other and you can join in the fun too! One of these games is the singing of action songs. Singing is not only a fun activity for your kids, but also a great way to establish a solid foundation in terms of motor skills and communication skills. Small motor skills are the ability to control small body muscles, including fingers, toes, tongue and lips. Singing allows toddlers to exercise muscles in and around the mouth. Singing also helps to develop speech and communication skills. Children's songs usually have rhymed words that expose children to acoustics and sound awareness skills. According to Scholastic, this will allow them to speak, banish and learn to read with greater ease. In addition, singing with parents is supposed to promote mutual communication skills at a young age. Songs that include action and movement will also help toddlers with rhythm, spatial awareness, balance and coordination. Here are 3 popular children's songs that you can introduce to your child. These songs also include light dance moves that go along with lyrics that will get your little ones moving around. Are the lyrics (excerpt) your ears going low? They oscillate sideways and forward? Piano music requires two-part staff in order to accommodate a wide range of piano notes. This large staff is called a large staff (or a large stave in UK English) and each individual staff inside is identified with their own musical symbol called Key. Notes on high frequencies and bass poles are not quite the same. But don't worry, once you know how to read one, you'll notice the same note pattern repeated on the other in a slightly different way. In the previous phase, you learned that the vertical location of regular notes shows height. On the other hand, notes tell you how long the note lasts, and they play a crucial role in the rhythm. Once you've read the basics of piano notation, you can immediately use your new knowledge with a light, color guide for an absolute beginner. For those who are a little more comfortable with notation, free, printer friendly practice lessons are available in multiple file formats and sizes. Each lesson focuses on a specific technique and ends with the practice of song, so you can practice your new skills and exercise vision reading. Test your progress or challenge yourself with new lessons! Find beginners and intermediate tests and quizzes - with accompanying lessons - on a number of major musical topics. Do you know what to do with old sheets? You can donate or trash bedding, or you could recycle this spent cloth and turn it into something new. If you have few ideas, we have come up with a few clever uses for old sheets that could improve your life. For example, these projects can help you eliminate waste in your home or help you become a more efficient gardener. It's worth noting that you don't need to have a set of torn sheets to take part. Do you stock up on too many sheets altogether? Many experts of the home organization recommend keeping no more than two sets of sheets on the bed. If you have more than this recommendation, consider cleaning your linen cabinet and tackling one of these DIY projects. Paper towels are becoming a thing of the past as more people work to reduce waste in their homes. If you have a set of old sheets, consider cutting them on some reusable towels Cotton sheets will make perfect rags and can even be used to polish stainless steel appliances. Just take a couple of couples scissors and cut the sheets into rectangles. The sheet fabric of Mollie Johanson may not be durable enough for a purse, but they are ideal fabric for bags. Drawstring bags can serve many uses. You can use them to arrange travel essentials, wrap gifts, or keep your wallet organized. This tutorial drawstring bag will show you how to work out a simple bag. Thick, opaque sheets can work well as a barrier to pumping in your garden. Make sure your sheets are not thin or transparent. Dark colors work best. If you have a lot of open space in your garden bed, fold sections of the old leaf before topping it with a few inches of fresh mulch. If you have light cotton sheets, you can use them in your garden in winter to protect the more fragile perennials. Molly Johanson there are a number of accessories that you could make with old sheets. Virtually anything that can be done using cotton should be considered. This two-way belt design may not use a lot of your old sheets, but if it goes well, make a few straps for the whole family. Smooth, wrinkle-free white sheets make large curtains in the farm style house. In fact, it may be cheaper to buy a set of inexpensive two sheets and turn them into curtains than buy custom window shades. Savings will add if you have the odd window size and need custom width or length. capecodphoto/Getty Images Think about making a wicker carpet using old sheets. This DIY project may take some patience to create, but the end result will help you use old sheets and any other scrap fabric that takes place in your ship room. Old sheets can be turned into a tug-of-war dog toy. The thicker you can make this dog toy, the stronger the toy. To complete this project, cut the old sheets into several long, thin strips. We recommend keeping the strips about two inches thick and three feet long. Take all the strips and then tie a large knot at the end. Divide the strips into three sections and start weaving the sections together. Finally, knot the bottom of the toy. Molly Johanson Plastic bags are terrible for the environment, so many communities are securing plastic bag bans in stores. Even if you can still use plastic bags, it may be worth your time to turn your sheets into grocery bags instead. Try this durable grocery bag template using a pair of patterned or solid sheets. This old leaf idea is similar to a bag or produce bag, but the function is different. The sheets make a great fabric to create a boho-inspired yoga mat bag. The article has a different model yoga mat bag to choose from. The farmhouse at Boone Lisa From farm on Boone has a very clever idea for re-hanging old sheets.
