Dear Save a Child supporter,

Save a Child UK (SaC UK) Privacy Notice

In line with the changes introduced by the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), effective from 25th May 2018, Save a Child UK now has a Privacy Notice. It sets how we collect, maintain and process data as well your enhanced rights over that data. SaC UK takes the security and integrity of your data very seriously. We shall always ensure that our policies are in line with good practice and consistent with GDPR standards and rules.

Please read Save a Child's Privacy Notice.

How this affects you:

About your sponsorship and donations: you need take no action.

As you are a current sponsor and/or recurring donor, we consider that SaC UK has through your original sponsorship/donation form the consent and authority to continue to hold and process your data specifically in relation to your sponsorship(s) and recurring donations. This includes sending you the annual report and photo about the child/children you sponsor.

About receiving SaC information on other matters: please reply.

GDPR regulations require your agreement to receive more general communications from SaC, such as newsletters and event notices. Please know these communications are usually also posted on our website.

Therefore, please reply confirming we may continue to contact you about Save a Child matters over and above your sponsorship and donations. Please also ask any questions you may have about our Privacy Notice.

I look forward to hearing from you. To help our administration, please cc our two Trustees responsible for SaC data: Bill Baker, Deputy Chairman, bill@h2glenfern.com, and Louise Sykes, Treasurer, louise.sykes@xlcatlin.com)

On behalf of all of us at Save a Child, we thank you most warmly for your continued support.

Louise Nicholson, Founder and Chairman, Save a Child
And the trustees of Save a Child UK: Bill Baker, Louise Sykes and Daphne Romney QC
