

Crystal Hutson started dancing at the age 4 and has not stopped. She attended GJ's dance studio until she became a Washington Wizards dancer in 2001. As a Wizards dancer, Crystal traveled all over performing. She traveled overseas to perform for U.S. troops in places like Jordan, Egypt, and more. Crystal was a member of the DC company, Urban Moves, and performed with local artists. Crystal loves to share her passion for dance in teaching and fitness. She has over 20 years experience and counting.
