

Instructions

Please watch the short film "American Sikh".and then write a full paragraph (200 words) with a topic sentence and supporting evidence in response to the following question:

Prompt: How does Vishavjit Singh use his creativity and critical thinking to promote tolerance, understanding and social justice? What does he realize about his journey as an American Sikh and what does he create? What do you think about his creation?