

Polish Mission Board of Trustees

Christopher Wzacny

Christopher Wzacny earned a Bachelor of Architectural Engineering from University of Detroit and a Master in City Planning from Wayne State University. He continued academic involvement for some 25 years, teaching architectural and urban design at UD, Lawrence University, and the UofM, where he is currently retired as Professor Emeritus. He is the President and CEO of Christopher Wzacny & Associates, a company dealing with residential, commercial, and institutional projects, which has been honored with architectural design awards from the American Institute of Architects, the US Department of Housing and Urban Development, and local civic agencies. Christopher is also President and founder of Wzacny & McKenna Associates Inc., a consulting firm specializing in community planning, specialized municipal projects such as housing, traffic studies, parks and open space, economic development, local transportation, etc. The firm was also involved in extensive urban design studies in several Michigan.