[Intro: Post Malone]

Oh

[Chorus: Ozzy Osbourne]

I feel you crumble in my arms down to your heart of
stone

You bled me dry just like the tears you never show

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

[Verse 1: Post Malone]

I never needed anything from you

And all I ever asked was for the truth (All I ever asked was for)

You showed your tongue and it was forked in two Your venom was lethal, I almost believed you (Almost believed you)

Yeah, you preyed on my every mistake
Waited on me to break, held me under hopin' I would drown

Like a plague, I was wasting away
Tryna find my way out, find my way out (Find my way out)

[Pre-Chorus 1: Post Malone]

And it finally came the day
I start giving my heart away
For Heaven's sake, my bones will break
But you'll never own my soul, no

[Chorus: Post Malone]

I feel you crumble in my arms down to your heart of
stone

You bled me dry just like the tears you never show

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

[Verse 2: Travis Scott]

I took them stones you threw, made chains for the crew (Ice)

I brought up 10 hoes, this coupe only made for two (Yessir)

They all ran through it, it ain't nothin' left to do
I need some more reasons to live out this evening
(Straight up)

I've been sippin' forever and just taking whatever
Hoping, thinking whenever you'll be back around

Let's go our ways, whichever

You say how is however long

'Cause you know I'll never be alone (Yeah)

[Pre-Chorus 2: Travis Scott]

Love (Love, yeah)

Shorty gon' back (Shorty gon, shorty gon' back)

Need it on sight (Need it on, need it on sight)

Crack it all back (Crack it all, crack it all back)

Give her that pipe (Give her that, give her that pipe)

All of my gang (All of my, all of my gang)

Shawty went bad (Shawty went, shawty went bad)

[Chorus: Ozzy Osbourne & Post Malone]

I feel you crumble in my arms down to your heart of
stone

You bled me dry just like the tears you never show

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

Why don't you take what you want from me?

Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go

[Outro: Post Malone]

Take it all away

Why don't you (Take what you want, take what you need)

Take what you need from me, yeah

(Take what you want) Why don't you (Take what you need)

(What you need, yeah)
