If you like classic puzzles or fast-paced challenges, you can find a great selection of free games online. In this article, I'll be taking a close look at the 10 best websites to visit to play online games at no cost. I spent time playing games on each of the websites listed below to provide quality, check out advertising and see what is available for free. Where to play free games online

When it comes to online games, you don't need to have the newest console or the latest titles to have fun. In fact, there are hundreds of thousands of free games available from your browser on your phone, computer or tablet. To find some of the best free classic and new games available online, check out the websites below. I spent some time on each website to figure out what types of games are available, if you need to download Adobe Flash to play them and how many ads you can expect to see. In each section below, you'll also find information on how to start playing games as well as the biggest pros and cons I've found for each site.

1. 247 Games best suited to: Classic games, card games and Adobe Flash puzzles: Required for some games online gaming Types of Games: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (phone/tablet browser) If you are interested in simple online versions of classic games, 247 Games is the perfect resource for you. On the homepage of recommended games, you'll find seasonal versions of all your favorite classic games including backgammon, blackjack, checkers, chess, mahjong, solitaire, Sudoku, word search and more. You can also categorize games. All games in 247 Games are completely free, and you won't need to create an account in order to access any features. I didn't run any ads when I played games on this site. In addition to the desktop version, you can visit the mobile version of the website on your smartphone or tablet to access the same games without downloading apps.

Pros: Cons: Little-no ads All games and features are free Easy to navigate and use No multiplayer games You can't create an account to track progress 2. Addicting Games Best For: Adobe Flash Single Player Games: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser), downloadable (desktop) and mobile (phone/tablet browser) Addicting Games website offers over 4,500 games in several categories including action games, light games, cute games, brain teasers and card and card game quizzes. When you visit the website, you'll see ads on your home screen and on the sides of the page while you play. But at least for me, they're not conspicuously influenced or a user experience. There is an option to switch to a paid Game Pass for free from advertising experience and early access to new games, but it is not required to play what you will see on the site. You can create a free account account Track your high scores and favorite games. If you visit a website on your smartphone or tablet, you can play many of the same games without downloading apps. However, some games are only available on the desktop version of the website. Pros: Cons: No accounts required New games added weekly Large variety of games and categories Exclusive games are only available to pay members Some Ads Best For: Games are available as apps; MMO Games Adobe Flash: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (App Store, Google Play) Armor Games is another great resource for finding free online games in categories including MMO (Massively Multiplayer Online), strategies, adventures, actions, puzzles and more. Many of the games you find online on Armor Games are also available as apps for iOS and Android devices, which means you can download them to your mobile device and keep playing away from your computer. I was impressed by the variety of games on this site. While you won't find many famous games such as blackjack or checkers, you will find many unique and interesting games created by Armor Games and independent developers. You can create a free account on the website to track your high scores and favorite games, but the account doesn't necessarily play what's available on the website. Pros: Cons: Little-no ads Many games are also available as Apps 4. Big Fish Games Best For: Downloadable Games and Adobe Flash Apps: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser), downloadable (desktop) and mobile (phone/tablet browser, App Store, Google Play) Unlike other websites listed so far, you'll have to create an account in order to play on Big Fish Games. However, setting up an account is easy and free. You just need to enter your email address and create a password. You will find access to thousands of free online games in categories such as hidden object games, casino games, adventure games, puzzles, strategic games, card and board games, family games and more. While many full versions are available for free, some games require paid membership for full access. While there are ads on this site, most of the ones I've seen have been for the paid membership that Big Fish Games offers unlike Google Ads. As I played through a few games on the website, I never felt that ads interfered with gameplay or user experience. In addition to free online games, you will find PC games, Mac games, iPad and iPhone games and Android games available for download. Pros: Cons: Downloadable Games Are Available New and Classic Games in various genres Few ads you need Account to play Some games require paid membership to access the full version 5. Free Online Games (FOG) Best for: Independently Designed Games, Mobile browser-friendly browser-friendly Adobe Flash: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (phone/tablet browser) Free online games (FOG) allows you to play games for free on your computer and on your mobile device without having to download any apps. You'll find a selection of 3D games, action games, games for protection, driving games, flying games, multiplayer games and more. While the most popular games on this site seem to be more action-oriented, you can still find classic games like Sudoku and Chess, looking for them using a search bar at the top of the screen. You can also view games by category under the More Games tab. During my time on FOG, I saw several ads for other games on the site, as well as video ads during gameplay breaks. While I had to disable my ad blocker play, the ads that I saw weren't enough to be a major part of the experience on this site. If you want, you can create a free account using your email address, username and password to track your progress and rank on boards with a high score. But it is not required to play games on the site. Pros: Cons: Mobile versions of games are available without having to download apps a large variety of games and categories Of multiple ad ads Video advertising you have to disable the ad blocker to play 6. Kongregate Best For: Independently Developed Games, Apps and Adobe Flash Community: Required to select games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (App Store, Google Play) Kongregate offers over 128,000 online games in many categories including action, multiplayer, adventure, strategy and puzzles. Like Big Fish Games, you will have to create an account to play many games on this site. However, it's totally free and easy to create one. When you visit the desktop version of the website, you will see ads at the top and bottom of the page while you play games, as well as a few on the first page. For me, they didn't dramatically affect the overall impression. If you visit the mobile version of the website, you will be redirected to the app store to download games to your device. Independent game developers can also download games to Kongregate, giving you access to thousands of unique games. Pros: Cons: Chat with other players during gameplay Independently designed games All content is available for free with the account you have to create an account to play games must be downloaded as apps to play on mobile device 7. MiniClip Best for: Multiplayer Games; 1v1 (one vs. one) Adobe Flash games: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile / Tablet Browser, App Store, Google Play) If you're a fan of multiplayer games or going head-to-head to another player, MiniClip might be worth checking out. In addition to the fact that Playing as a guest and match with other random online players, it was also easy to find party codes and invite friends. You will find different games in categories including action, sports, puzzles, games for kids and more. You'll also find games you can download from the App Store and Google Play. The most popular games include 8-Ball Pool, Agar.io, Tanki Online and Empire. You can create a free account to track your high scores, get into the top and add friends, but you don't have to. You can play most games online as a guest without having to log in. As I played games on MiniClip, a few pop-up ads popped up, but otherwise, the website wasn't littered with advertising banners. When I visited the online version of the website, I was able to choose whether I wanted to play free games instantly or browse the available selection of apps for the device I used. Pros: Cons: Mobile games are available online and as apps a large selection of multiplayer games Some pop-up ads 8. MSN Games Best For: Classic Puzzles, Casino Games and Adobe Flash Card Games: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (phone/tablet browser, App Store, Google Play) MSN Games is also known as Zone.com, and it offers single-player and multiplayer games in a variety of categories including puzzles, word and trivia, action and table games. While I was browsing through the available games, I found that some full versions were available for free, while other games were only available as free trials or payment options. You can click on the Free online tab to filter out the results. If advertising really annoys you, MSN Games is a safe place to play. While I was on this site, I didn't have to sit through any video ads. You can visit the website on your phone or tablet and play available games for free in the browser, but the format was not the best for my iPhone. On a tablet or a device with a large screen, I think the games will run much more smoothly. However, many of the games were available as downloadable apps. Pros: Cons: No video ads A large selection of classic and new games No accounts required Some games are only available as free trial versions or pay-per-game Mobile site can not be formatted correctly for your device 9. Pogo Is Best For: Hasbro and PopCap Games Adobe Flash: Required for some games online Gaming Types: Internet (computer browser) and mobile (phone/tablet browser) To play games on Pogo.com, you need to log into your EA (Electronic Arts) account or create one for free. Once you Signed, you will see a variety of games available in categories including board games, card games, hidden object games, poker games, puzzles and more. If you're using an ad blocker, you may be asked to disable it before playing selected Pogo games. Pogo, there were video ads before games and during gameplay breaks, they didn't get in the way of the experience for me. You can subscribe to a paid membership that offers free gameplay, but it doesn't necessarily use the site. Pogo games that don't require Adobe Flash are also available on mobile devices and tablets. Unfortunately, some games are only available as free trials and require users to pay to continue playing. However, there are tons of totally free options that make The Gogo a free gaming site worth a visit. Pros: Cons: Popular games from PopCap and Hasbro Easy to invite other players and build a list of friends Games can be played in the phone or tablet browser Some ads you will have to create an account to play Not all full versions are available for free 10. Shockwave Best For: Free Test Downloadable Games Adobe Flash: Required for All Game Types: Internet (Computer Browser) and Downloadable (Desktop) If you haven't found a fix on any of the other websites listed here, try Shockwave. You will find a variety of online and downloadable games in categories including puzzles, hidden game objects, strategic games, racing games, card and board games, adventure games and more. Although there were a few ads on the home screen and during the gameplay, I was able to leave my adblocker going through a few games before being asked to disable it. Video ads periodically surfaced during gameplay breaks, but I didn't feel like it took away from the overall experience. While the website is available on mobile devices, you will need Adobe Flash set to play any of the games on this site. Pros: Cons: Internet and downloadable games No account required to play Some advertising Very Limited Mobile Experience Final Thoughts Ultimately, there are dozens of websites that you can visit to find free online games. If you're looking for simple online versions of classic games, I'd recommend checking out 247 games. Kids will find plenty of choice on addicting games and FOG. If you're hoping to find online games that are also available in your mobile browser or as an iOS/Android app, check out Armor Games, Big Fish Games and Kongregate. Keep in mind that you don't have to create an account to play games on most of these websites, but if you do, the account is easy and free to do. Many games require Adobe Flash until the end of 2020, so be sure to download this as well. Aside from Flash, you don't have to download anything else to play games unless you want to download select games yourself or install them as apps. When visiting various links, I recommend saving A free adblocker is installed on your computer or browser. You may have to turn it off to play favorite games, but it's still worth having if you plan to visit a few different different What are your favorite free games to play online?
