Hey you. Yes you! Are you free from 8pm to 11pm on Fridays doing nothing? Boy, I have an opportunity for you! The group is currently level 4 and consists of Dragonborn Paladin, 2 human fighters, and Kalashtar Bard. They have their quirks, but everyone gets along well. The party is currently traveling through the Plains of Talents towards Carnath, and has just acquired (mercilessly beaten in submission) Triceratops for transportation. Why Karnat? A reasonable magic sword told them! That doesn't explain why either. Sounds interesting? This is just the tip of the iceberg. Slap down a comment on this post or PM me if my crappy little ad got your attention. We use Roll20 for the game and Discord for voice/memes. Happy games! Whether you're a veteran or a new player looking for mates to enter the Nexus with, this is the place for you! Be sure to check out The Weekly Looking for Group Topics to find players advertising. Apply for a zlt/name and follow the instructions of introduction From the sprawling towns of Thurgor, to the burning factories dotted an, all the way across the Silver Sea to the porous mountains in the Commonwealth of Turk, Taleweaver journey brings to life 5e in a way that very few storytellers can achieve. Taleweaver Chronicles is a world of homegrown that focuses on the depth and immersion of characters with a balance of original knowledge, intrigue, struggle and magic. True definition 5e: boundless, dangerous and open. Your search is decided by you, your meetings will be yours, and your fate and the fate of the world are in your hands. Every little thing; Weather, History, NPCs, Streets, Cities, Villages, Landscapes, Dungeons and Tombs have all been carefully painted for brave adventures to pass and interact with. Stories taleweaver bring reality to 5e, with actions causing far-reaching consequences in these turbulent times of the world. Continuing campaigns are open world by standard, with nothing but your conscience and members of your party as a guide. The setting of this world is a medieval fantasy on a global scale. There are several states all inhabiting different races and there are several religions. The pace of development varies greatly for each State and continent. When you start, you may discover (with proper investigation) that there are a few political tumultuous things brewing and the first quest presented you can in place to learn more if you want. The way you play is decided by the party. If you choose to be politicians or their agents, sign up for the army, dungeon-crawl, or even take over the world. It's all your call. The world is so big I am currently building wikis so you can look and add whatever you want as the campaigns continue and the world grows. Hooklit's campaign is the 53rd year of the 7th century Mokra and there are tensions between the Woolrontian Empire and the Kingdom of Tergor. The Thieves Guild robbed Kelled II, and Kelled came to the conclusion that King Tergor was somehow behind it. Meanwhile, in the south of the Orcs An entered almost open war for the domination of trade routes on the Silver Sea against the dwarves of the Toorak Commonwealth. Orcs are also trying to get rid of the monopoly of the dwarf trading guild and trading banks and have started their own banking operations looking to start an informal server with Orp, usually live in ratholes on ext/valg, pvp a lot and stay alive. looking for a fresh block of napkins. add me to contention if you want to get too started something before Danwan-6745 No LFG Records for this filter, make one! Recording.platformUserHandle - icon.displayValue - Join the voice . I am looking for friendly and non-toxic gamers to play with. with toxic I don't mean swearing or abusive memes because I don't mind them, but I mean anger issues and verbal abuse of other players. You don't have to be 15-22, but that's the range we have now, so if you're younger/older and find that good, then so are we! You can play not only with yourself, but also with some other people that I've found here (they're all super nice and accepting). We started a small Discord server to play together and organize a lobby. I'm doing this because I've found a lot of toxic players on r/gamerpals and other LFG groups, so now I just want to deal with these people and create a 100% positive community. Int. CASTLE - COURT - NIGHT Led zeppelin immigrant song plays as Cale falls through a solid stone wall, driven by a sonic wave. Benny, Krunch in tow, rushes to the stage. KALEY FOUND A SCREAM! Bennishe Cale cleans the little finger's ear. The thread of the syma is dangling from his ear hole to the tip of his finger. CALEOUHAT?! Krunch jumps down from Benny's shoulder and runs over the well. He catches a bucket and then spins it over his head as Michelangelo spins a hook after the nunchucks were deemed too cruel for Saturday morning's cartoon. Krunch lets go. CLUNK Bucket captures the ghost's head, utterly baffling her. CALAIS, HOW AM I GOING TO KILL HER? Benny frowns at the screaming elf. KRUNCHY don't know. CALEUHAT? KRUNCH Only a cry, with a long memory, with a long memory, has knowledge of the location of Ketenasia. Cale, Benny and Krunch turn to face the ghost, and she feels the paws at the bucket. KRUNCHask her where Kenetnesia. Benny and Krunch look at Kayla waiting. CALEUHAT? KROUNCHASK E. - A little elven girl still unnoticed stands among them. She is of flesh and blood, but her skin glows with supernatural light. Richard, also still unnoticed, stands among them too. But that's quite normal. He was probably a primacy when he heard all the screams. The path is more normal than the Mystery of the Child there. MYSTERY CHILDShe is not responding. CRUNCHWhy isn't it? MYSTERY CHILDUh because she speaks in screams? Literally called Scream? And you want to talk to her. RICHARDI say we'll let her talk. Richard removes the bucket from Crick's face. She immediately screams, knocking Richard across the yard. RICHARDO, that's why she had a bucket on her head. CALEUHAT? Int. CASTLE - COURT - NIGHT Cale hovers over Krunch and Benny, who are resting by the fire. Well, try to relax. It's hard to relax when your personal space is being invaded. CALESo..? BENNIES? CALEAre we closer to finding the Sword of Truth? KRUNCH we are closer to throwing a note about it into this fire. BENNY is a mystery about Scream. Nothing grinds the adventure to stop like a riddle. RICHARD (outside the panel) Go on, little guy. CALESpeaking grind ... Cale peaks in on the next room. Int. CASTLE - PANTRY - NIGHT Richard stands over a makeshift cage, coaxing a giant rat into it. RICHARD'S what you're going to. Then you can be reunited with your family. SOOBA (outside panel)Grrr... Sooba is ready to pounce. Richard puts himself between the rat and Soboy. The rat is snowing into the cage. RICHARD DOWN, Sooba! Cale sneaks a rat in a cage and wanders away. Int. CASTLE - KITCHEN - NIGHT Cale enters the kitchen and immediately notices the boiler. CALEPerfect! Rat in a cage, set aside, Cale lights a fire under the boiler. He turns around and taunts the rat. Something starts with him. A transparent, intangible young woman swims on the spot. CALEGreetings? The ghostly woman collides with Cale and lets out a scream that shakes the lock and punches Cale back.
