

Sal Ferrigno

Ferrigno joined SSA Terminals in 1992 with nearly 30 years of experience in the Transportation industry. His current role with SSA Terminals is Vice President and is involved in all aspects of operations on the west coast. Ferrigno also serves on various industry committees which includes, but not limited to, Pacific Maritime Associations Coast Steering committee, West Coast Marine Terminal Operators committee and PMSA. Prior to his current role as Vice President, he served as the General Manager of Pacific Container Terminal for 18 years which is one of the largest container volume handling terminals in the San Pedro Basin.