HOUSE, TECH HOUSE, PROGRESSIVE HOUSE

House music producer and DJ from Los Angeles, MRKO has notably supported artists such as Benny Benassi, Robin Schulz, Angie Brown and Ferry Tayle at top California venues such as the Academy in LA and 1015 Folsom in San Francisco. His performances extend internationally to London, Amsterdam, and Canada. His track "Dark Ocean" achieved notable success, reaching #4 on the Beatport Progressive House Hype 100 chart and gaining over 450K streams. His tracks have been featured on Night Rider and New Dance Spotify editorial playlists. His growing presence includes releases with Austin Kramer's TBD (Blanco y Negro) the The Disco Fries' "Liftoff Records" labels, plus a collaboration with the house legend Angie Brown. His musical style ranges from classic house to progressive house, drawing inspiration from artists like D.O.D, Max Styler, Gorgon City and Camelphat.
