

"LIES THAT SEES"

Poem by: FRANCHESKA BRIONES

I

In a world of words that twist and turn,
Lies emerge, like hidden burn.
False stories told with a crafty art,
Tearing at the seams of the honest heart.

II

Whispers of untruths, a tangled thread,
Weaving a web where trust has fled.
Promises shattered, like fragile glass,
Leaving behind a shadowy, broken mass.

III

Deceit wears a mask, like a sly disguise,
Leaving behind trails of whispered lies.
A game played in the shadows' embrace,
Leaving truth behind, lost in chase.

IV

Yet honesty blooms in a simple truth,
A flower resilient, despite the sooth.

In the light of truth, darkness dies,
Revealing the cost of deceitful lies.

V

So let honesty be your guiding light,
Breaking through the web, dispelling the night.
In a world where deceit often vies,
Choose the path free from deceptive ties.
