

A 1st degree Miscellany

Are you a newly made mason? And like to see a unique version of the 1st degree tracing board?

Ever wondered why you stand in the North East Corner?

Then why not come along to the next regular meeting of Avon Lodge on the 8th October starting at 6:30pm at the Masonic Centre, Swan Lane, Evesham and all will be explained.

The meeting to be held in the 1st degree

Worshipful Brother Barry Griffin the Provincial Grand Registrar will be presenting in his unique style an explanation of the North East Corner, an explanation of the Preparation of the candidate, plus a walking version of the extended 1st Degree Tracing Board

It is open to masons, but especially to entered apprentices, fellow craft or master masons and has yet to see an explanation of the 1st degree tracing board, or want to know about the North East corner or an explanation of your mode of preparation.

For Further information or to book your place at what will be a very special evening then contact the secretary or Director of Ceremonies by email
