Aadhar card documents required pdf

Here's how you can apply for an Aadhaar card if you don't have the necessary supporting documents. Aadhaar has become an important financial document. To apply for a PAN, file a Income Tax Declaration (ITR) or receive a subsidy or grant from the government, it is sure to give your number Aadhaar. You can apply for an Aadhaar card if you have a valid ID (PoI) such as a PAN card, passport, voter ID, etc., valid proof of address (PoA) such as passport, bank statement/pass, voter ID, driver's license, etc. and date of birth proof. However, what happens if you don't have the necessary documents? Can you apply for an Aadhaar card? READ ALSO: Documents required to apply for Aadhaar card According to Aadhaar UIDAI Form, there are two more ways to apply for an Aadhaar card if a person does not have their own SUPPORTING POI/POA documents - (1) through introduction and (2) through the head of the family (HoF). (Screenshot of the Aadhaar enrollment form available on the UIDAI website) Here's how you can apply for an Aadhaar card if you don't have the necessary supporting documents. Through the Head of Family (HoF) If the person in the family does not have a valid PoI and valid proof of address, then he/she can still apply for an Aadhaar card, provided the person's name exists in the family law document, such as a ration card. In such cases, the head of the family in the law document must be credited primarily with valid PoI and PoA documents. The head of the family can introduce other family members at the time of their enrollment, according to the UIDAI website. HoF must also carry an original identity card and an identity document. HoF must also accompany a person who wants to apply for an Aadhaar card at the registration center. A person applying for an Aadhaar card through HoF must have proof of relationship with HoF as well. The proof of the relationship document must contain the applicant's name and HoF. According to UIDAI, below are documents that are valid as proof of connection: 1. PDS card 2. Map of work MNREGA 3. CGHS/State Government/ECHS/ESIC Medical Map 4. Pension card 5. Army Dining Map 6. Passport 7. According to the UIDAI website, the introduction is a person who is authorized/notified by the Registrar to enter residents who do not have any POA/PoI documents. The introduction should already have the number Aadhaar and must be present in person at the Aadhaar Center for introduction-based enrollment. Keep in mind that both, introduction or HoF, will be required to confirm the identity and address of the person for whom they vouch and sign the person's enrollment form as needed in the designated space. According to a circular issued by UIDAI this week, the introduction will have to issue details in the standard certifcate, namely the Certificate for Aadhaar Enrollment/Update for the person. The issued certificate will be valid within three months of the date of issuance. With a circular, you can get here.
