

Full Squad Tournaments

All wrestlers are expected to attend and be ready to wrestle. When they are not competing in a match, wrestlers should be either (1) actively helping run the event, (2) cheering on their team, and/or (3) watching a potential competitor to learn and improve. If a wrestler is injured or has been precluded from competing for another reason, they should still plan to attend dual meets, wear their team gear, and behave as if they were there to compete.
