

The Society

ISHLL is a society of scholars working on the history of the dictionary, the making of historical dictionaries, and historical lexicology. ISHLL was established as a result of the first International Conference on Historical Lexicography and Lexicology, which took place in Leicester in 2002. Subsequent conferences have been held at Gargnano del Garda, Italy (2004), Leiden, The Netherlands (2006), Edmonton, Canada (2008), Oxford, UK (2010), Jena, Germany (2012), Gran Canaria, Spain (2014), Bloomington Indiana, USA (2016), Santa Margherita Ligure, Italy (2018), and Leeuwarden-Ljouwert, The Netherlands (2019).

Conference attendants are kindly invited to become members of the Society. There is no membership fee. One becomes a member by signing up on the ISHLL listserv:

<https://listserv.uga.edu/cgi-bin/wa?A0=ishll-l>

Members receive news about upcoming conferences and the areas of interest of the society.

The Conference at the University of La Rioja

The 2020 Conference of the International Society on Historical Lexicography and Lexicology will be held at the University of La Rioja on June 17-19, 2020.

Scientific Committee

Michael Adams – Indiana University Bloomington

Marc Alexander – University of Glasgow

John Considine – University of Alberta

Begoña Crespo García – Universidade da Coruña

Andrés Enrique Arias – Universidad de las Islas Baleares

Chiara Fedriani – Università degli Studi di Genova

Julia Landmann – University of Heidelberg

Isabel Moskovisch – Universidade da Coruña

Mirosława Podhajecka – University of Opole

Lola Pons Rodríguez - Universidad de Sevilla

Alicia Rodríguez Álvarez – Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria

Hans Sauer – University of Munich

Annina Seiler – University of Zurich

Organisation

Javier Martín Arista

Roberto Torre Alonso

Raquel Vea Escarza

Raquel Mateo Mendaza

Carmen Novo Urraca

Luisa Fidalgo Allo

Laura García Fernández

Ana Elvira Ojanguren López

Miguel Lacalle Palacios

Sara Domínguez Barragán
Yosra Hamdoun Bghiyel

Submissions

We welcome proposals for both oral presentations and posters on the conference topic "Historical Lexicography and Lexicology in the Digital Era: Electronic Lexicography, Databases and the Semantic Web"; as well as any topic of historical lexicography, historical lexicology, etymology, historical lexica, historical thesauri, and historical lexical databases.

Oral presentations will be twenty minutes long, followed by a ten-minute discussion. Posters will be presented in a plenary session previous to poster sessions. Each poster author will be assigned a two-minute slot (with one ppt slide) to offer an overview and to invite delegates to visit their poster. The recommended poster size is 48" x 60", but 36" x 48" posters may also be displayed.

Abstracts (250-300 words, excluding bibliography) should be submitted electronically through EasyChair (<https://easychair.org/cfp/2020cishll>), both for oral presentations and poster presentations.

Submissions, which will undergo double-blind peer review, must state clearly the aims, sources, method, results, and conclusions of the undertaking.

The language of the conference is English.

All papers must be original and not simultaneously submitted to another journal or conference.

The most outstanding poster teasers and visual presentations in the areas of historical lexicography and historical lexicology will be awarded a poster prize during the closing ceremony.

Important dates

CFP deadline: February 28, 2020

Notification of acceptance: March 17, 2020

Early Bird registration: until April 17, 2020

Ordinary registration: until May 15, 2020

Extraordinary registration: until June 19, 2020

Plenary speakers

The following plenary speakers have already confirmed their participation:

Francisco Gago-Jover (College of the Holy Cross)

(Mis)Adventures in Corpus Creation: Lemmatization, PoS tagging, and the Creation of a Dictionary of Forms for Old Spanish.

Ellert Jóhannsson (University of Copenhagen)

Gathering, cultivating and harvesting the data — the evolution of a digital resource for Old Norse prose.

Michiko Ogura (Chiba University)

‘Impersonal’ and ‘Reflexive’ Constructions: Verb Features peculiar to Old and Middle English.

Publication

A selection of contributions to 2020 CISHLL will be submitted to an international publishing house. Authors will also be offered options for electronic publication.

Venue

The conference will be held in Edificio Politécnico, Universidad de La Rioja, Logroño, Spain.

Further information

All questions about submissions should be emailed to 2020ichll@gmail.com.