5. Kapehan sa Wins- Meeting of the stakeholders at the school over a cup of coffee is done every last Friday of the month at 3:00-5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. This aims to mobilize the bonding between the school and the community, thus improve the performance of the learners.

6. Your Voice our Boss- As part of feedback mechanism, we generate comments, suggestions and input from stakeholders through suggestion box. Schools see to it that issues and concerns are addressed and given due attention.

7. Teams for WinS- What makes WinS program successful in Balayan East CS is because of the presence of organized teams and accountable units who spearhead the promotion and implementation of different activities about WinS.

8. WinS adopts WinS nurtured

To expand the concept of WinS to the community, a barangay was adopted by WinS Advocates of BECS. Best Activities like information dissemination and sanitary education are done every last day of the month.

9. WinS for the Win

To validate the level of understanding of pupils on concept of wash in schools' programs, a monthly competition, slogan and quiz bee is done in the school. Winners were recognized during flag raising ceremonies. Likewise, a contest for Best WinS implementer was designed to motivate teachers to improve the level of implementation.
